Constructing Memories

Go MHS! Mr. Ed Chmberlin motivates the crowd at the symposium before the parade. Mr. Chamberlin has been the official motivator for several years. You never know what he will do next.

Starting the year off right

There is one way to really kick off the year for the students and that is the annual homecoming parade. Last year was the first time in four years that the parade had successfully been pulled off due to the wonderful weather. This year Mother Nature smiled on us again and the parade went off without a hitch. The parade followed the motivation symposium where Mr. Ed Chamberlin put on his usual fantatstic show while trying to instill in students some MHS pride. Many students were involved in the parade. Everyone from athletes, the band, student council and even the administrators took part in sharing their enthusiasm for MHS. Even the bystanders who watched from the sidewalk were in on the fun by waving and cheering on the groups as they passed on the street. The parade started at the school and ran down Lincoln Way all the way through downtown Mishawaka. It included fire trucks, convertibles, golf carts, and floats. Hopefully Mother Nature will smile on us for many years to come so that we may carry on this great tradition.

School Spirit! Patrick Gnass (Sr) looks on at the crowd as the parade starts. Pat showed his school spirit many times this year whether it was dressing as a caveman for the parade or wearing strange attire for spirit day.

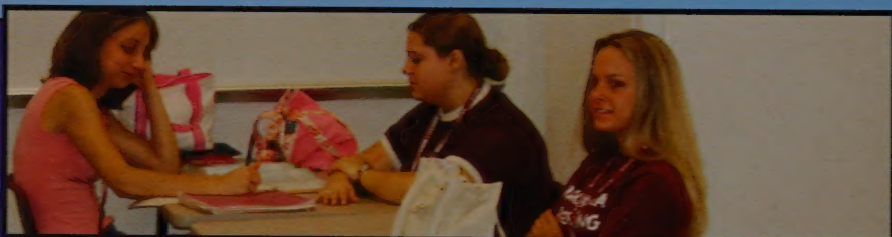

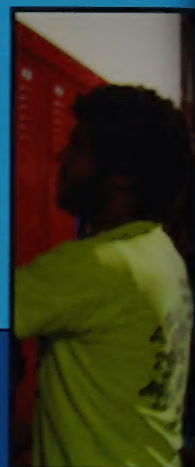

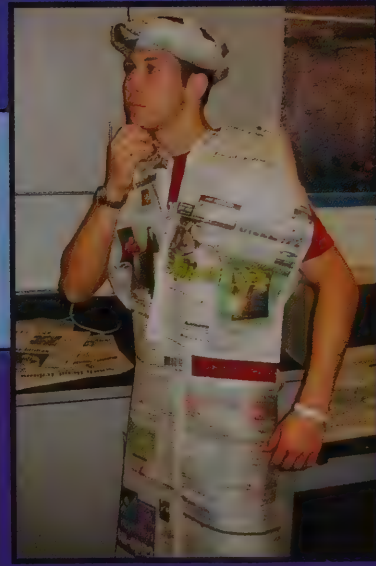

Riding in Style! The official Freshmen Academy golf cart rides down the street being driven by Ms. Anita Nash and Ms. Lori Kitkowski.

Hang on! Mishawaka cheerleaders ride in style on top of a firetruck. The cheerleaders did their best to help the bystanders get excited about the homecoming game that night and MHS in general.

Student Life

Students

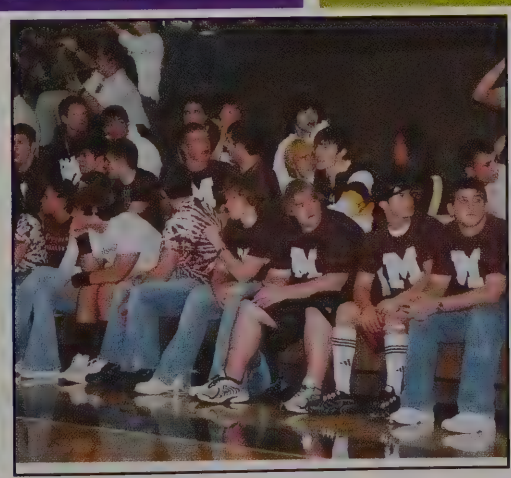

Construction began in the fall for the remodeling of Mishawaka High School.

Opened in 1924, Mishawaka High School needed some remodeling. Major renovation took place in the auditorium and library. Air conditioning throughout the building was another project. Large dumpsters and other construction equipment welcomed students back to school in August and made them feel right at home throughout the school year. Students were surprised to see that the library and auditorium had been transformed into temporary classrooms. These classrooms were used while construction was going on in different classrooms. Many students had their classrooms moved to these rooms midway through the year as their rooms were remodeled. Even the guidance counselors were moved to these temporary rooms during the year. Students did not mind the construction, especially when it got them out of class because dust set off the fire alarm. This was much to the liking of students. In many classes the construction was a very big distraction. Drilling, sawing, and pounding rang in the hallways just like the noise during passing periods.

Even with all of the distractions, students were able to have a pretty normal school year. They attended Friday night football games, basketball games, and many more things to support their Cavemen. A few students even tailgated on Friday nights before the football game. The student section at Mishawaka was nicknamed the "Cavemen Crazies" because of the intensity they displayed at sporting events. Some new activities that happened this year at MHS were a dodgeball tournament and a Euchre tournament. Class Olympics was another big hit with students in the Spring. This was a time when students could show off their talents to the rest of the school and have a little fun at the same time.

Teenagers, William Shakespeare, and a famous football college. An unlikely trio. But that's the exact combination you would have seen last summer at Summer Shakescenes. The Thespian Society of MHS performed a scene from Julius Caesar on the Notre Dame campus. Other schools from around the area brought different scenes all written by the Bard himself. After only rehearsing a few times, the Cavemen Thespians pulled through with an emotional and memorable performance. "We did an awesome job. We had one early entrance though," says Cheryl Nwokah who played Portia. The audience included everyone from parents and friends, to ND students and Shakesperian professors. The scenes were performed outside in front of the infamous Stonehenge Fountain. MHS graduate Chris Kindig played the important role of Julius Caesar. Other cast members include Kevin Gostola as Brutus, Cheryl Nwokah as Portia, Rachael Roggeman as Cassius, Jade Marks as Cinna, Jessica Hartman as the servant, Kurtis Willingham as Marc Antony, James Doran as Casca and Megan Dotson as Calphurnia. After the students performed, they were treated to pizza and soda. After dinner, a respected Shakesperian professor gave a lecture on the history of theatre and the important role Shakespeare played. Then the students were split up into three groups and rotated into three different workshops. The first was on Stage Movement, the second on The Voice of the Actor, and the last on Emotional Line Delivery. At the end of the day, the students were treated to a spectacular performance of Romeo & Juliet. This was a professional production with actors from all over the country. The students actually sat in on a dress rehearsal. The real show would open the next night. It was an amazing experience and everyone thoroughly enjoyed Summer Shakescenes 2004. It left the students saying, "Nice Play, Bill!"

HS spirit week is once again the craziest time of the year. Many students enjoyed dressing up and looking like fools.

Spirit week is one of the few weeks out of the school year that you just let your crazy side show. That was exactly the case for most students who participated this school year. Spirit week was held the week before both Fall and Winter Homecoming. The first week included Nerd Day, Hawaiian Day, Super Hero Day, Favorite Sports Team Day, and Maroon and White Day. For Winter Homecoming, they mixed it up a little with Napoleon Dynamite Day, Patriotic Day, Backwards Day, Decades Day, and Maroon and White Day. From Napoleon Dynamite to geeks walking through the hallways, it was quite a show. "It allowed the older kids to walk around school all day looking like a 10 year old but feeling like you owned the school", commented Rachel Wurz who dressed up as Superwoman for Super Hero Day. "I had so much fun goofing off and having fun while showing school spirit," said Rachel. Many students who participated did so with their friends. Hope Grame, Emily Stillson, Angela Presits, Gabriella Layman, and Mia Trimboli, who are known as the Fab Five, dressed up for Patriotic Day by spray painting the flag on t-shirts. "Patriotic Day was my favorite day", stated Gabriella who dressed up four out of the five days. Another very unique group was Ashley Ware, Staci Paul, and Britney Przygoda who wore Hawaiian pattern fat suits. "All day I had people laughing at me as I walked by," said Staci Paul. When asked where she got her costume, she stated, "We bought them in 7th grade for the Halloween Dance and decided that they'd be great to wear for Hawaiian Day, plus no one else would have the same thing as us," commented Staci Paul. In all, Spirit Week was another success as always. Mishawaka High School students really have awesome school spirit and they sure aren't afraid to show it.

CAST CAN BE PROUD

The lights come up, the curtains swish open, and the show begins. The play Pride & Prejudice goes on and the crowd goes crazy!

Standing outside Practice Room B at the Battell Center on Friday, October 18, 2005 you would hear loud bass beats of music and the excited voices of the cast. Seniors and freshmen alike dance and have fun before cues are called. When you walk into the room you surprisingly find a bunch of teenagers in clothes from the 1800s. Senior Abby Emmons, who played Elizabeth Bennet, says "The costumes are comfortable, lots of elastic! They can get pretty hot onstage though." One memory Abby will take with her is "Pat Gnass trying out. He always keeps us laughing and it was fun getting to know him." The cast is a bit sad because their shows for the 2004-2005 school year have to be at the Battell Center because of construction. "I'm personally sad because this was my first decent sized role and I would have really like to experience that on the MHS stage," says junior Rachael Roggeman who played Jane Bennett. While Rachael misses the stage, some people have never even seen the MHS stage. This includes senior Pat Gnass, the comic relief of the play as Mr. Bennett, and sophomore Chad Kissinger who just came to MHS this year. Chad had a little extra stress on him because not only did he have a supporting role, but he had to make all new friends. "I tried my best at acting, and then I just bonded with my castmates," says Chad, "They're all really cool and eccentrically funny." Pride & Prejudice is a confusing love story centered around the Bennett daughters, Elizabeth, Jane, Mary, Kitty, and Lydia, and their mother's desperate need for them to be married so as to ensure they won't lose their home when Mr. Bennett dies. After the curtain closes, true love is found for three of the Bennett daughters, and their mother is at ease knowing the house is safe in the family. As the cast comes for the curtain call, they receive a standing ovation and the adoration of the community. Even though in the play it is emphasized that it's bad to have pride, this cast has every reason to be proud!

Megan Dotson (So) tells Isabel Fraga (Jr) that she is distressed because her husband won't visit the new neighbors.

"We always goof off and release some steam before a show," says Brittany Stasiak (So) who played Charlotte Lucas in the play. "We always listen to 'Bohemian Rhapsody' before any show, it's an MHS tradition." In the picture above, the ladies of the cast are dancing and having some fun before the curtain goes up.

Marta Finkelstein (Fr) tells Abby Emmons (Sr) and Rachael Roggeman (Jr) that she's going shopping.

Most people don't know how important make up is for a production. Four characters in the play had to look "old." Above Amber Taylor (Jr) does Nick Greene's (Jr) makeup. Nick played Wickham.

This was the first play ever for senior Pat Gnass (Sr), who played Mr. Bennett. For his roles in Pride & Prejudice and the musical Godspell, Pat was inducted as a Member of the International Thespian Society on May 5, 2005. In the picture to the left, Pat is getting his stage makeup done by fellow cast member Brittany Stasiak (So).

The glare of the lights and the holiday spirit in the air. Christmas season must be here at MHS.

To the students here at MHS December means the Food Drive, the Christmas tree across from the main office, and Holiday Break. These three things signify the season is upon us. This year was different from previous years due to some changes in leadership of the food drive and in the look of the Christmas tree. The food drive saw some changes this year, but still ran as smoothly as previous years. This was in large part due to the foundation that Mr. John Manuszak put down because of his hard work in previous years. Mr. Manuszak has been head of the food drive for twenty-three years. This year, because of an illness, he was assisted by fellow teachers Mr. Micheal Breske and Mr. Ed Chamberlin. Just as in years past, the students and faculty raised money for the needy families. There was a difference in that seminars only bought gifts for the Another successful food drive was put on thanks to Manuszak's elves.

Something else that was different this year was the new Christmas tree in the foyer. After opening the tree box, taking the tree out, and decorating the tree, the Student Council realized that it just did not have the same effect on the students' holiday spirit as it once did. The officers purchased a new tree and set it up without many students realizing there had been a change. To the more observant staff members, the change was evident. Miss Angela Stillson who teaches English at MHS said, "The old tree was here when I was a student in the early 90s. The new tree has more color and more of a Christmas feel. I definitely approve." The new tree is definitely a welcome and will be enjoyed for years to come.

The snow is falling, cameras are ready, everyone is all dressed up. The Winter Dance is ready to begin.

The Winter Dance is very important to many students. This is especially true for freshman and sophomores who do not get the chance to go to prom. Everyone and anyone is welcome to the Winter Dance. It is a very memorable experience for all. For freshman, this was their first chance to go to a formal high school dance. Many students at MHS have friends at other schools. Students from different schools are welcome as well. It is a time to meet up with all your friends, whether they go to MHS or not. The Winter Dance is held every year, and it is hard for people to come back from it disappointed. Some people wonder, is the winter dance all it is hyped up to be? Elyse Janesheski(So) answers that question, "The Winter Dance is fun. It is almost like a mini-prom. Everyone gets dressed up, goes out to dinner, and then dances the rest of the night!" This year, the winter dance was hosted at the F.O.P Lodge. The F.O.P. provided a large dancing floor, tables, drinks, and a D.J. who played everyone's favorite music. For some students, this year's dance was not their first, but it was their most favorite out of them all. "This year's dance was so much more fun than last year. More people showed up," explained Natalie Kowalinski(So). "There were kids from different schools and different social groups. Nobody cared. Everyone just danced!". As everyone piled out of the F.O.P Lodge, students were given chocolate bars, with the wrapper saying "Winter Dance 04-05". But many kids did not just leave with a candy bar. They also left with many memories to last them a lifetime.

(below) Natalie Kowalinski(So), Elyse Janesheski(So), and Kelsey Rensberger(So) pose for a picture. Kelsey Rensberger explains, "I didn't come to the dance last year, but this year my friends made me! I had a great time! I'm glad I came."

Kelsey Rensberger(So) takes a second to take a picture with one of her good friends from Marian, Valerie Anderson(So). The dance gave everyone a chance to make new friends from other schools and also a chance to meet up with friends that they have known for awhile.

This year, Joshua Black was crowned the 2004-2005 Boys' Homecoming King. The student body always votes for who they think is fit to be King. "Being chosen by your fellow classmates is a real honor," said Black. This was Black's first year to be on court. "I was really surprised when they crowned me King." Black was crowned by this year's Queen, Hope Grame. "Homecoming is a great way to recognize not only the court memers, but also their escorts," said Grame. Since student council puts on the event, the escorts are the student council participants. "We have a lot of fun with it," said Grame.

odspell goes off without a hitch and the cast and crew celebrate a hit show!

When the show opens, you see a bunch of people in business suits, come onto the stage. Then different prophets and philosophers sing or say soliloquys, and then the whole company breaks into the song "Tower of Babble." Thus begins the MHS production of Godspell on March 19, 20, 21. One question comes to mind when first hearing about Godspell, "How can they do a religious play in a public school?" Well Mrs. Bennett clears things up for any doubters', "There are other plays representing different religions, like Fiddler on the Roof focuses on the Jewish religion. Many musicals try to satisfy different tastes, and Godspell satisfies the taste of people interested in Jesus Christ."

On Friday night, there was a Super Bowl size mess. In the middle of the play Chad Kissinger, who played John the Baptist and a "computer guy" had a wardrobe malfunction. "I was onstage doing the prodigal son parable and I realized my fly was down. I couldn't subtly zip it up, so we all just went with. People still ask me if that was intentional." Godspell was the first musical at MHS for Elizabeth Avery, "I never thought I could enjoy working so hard on something. The only real complaint I have is the lack of sleep." Elizabeth was a sailor in the play. Which makes one wonder, how did the cast choose their costumes? Brandon Dennis said, "I was a 'Rock Star' for the chicks. The leather pants too. That'll never happen again, but for a show it was fun." Pat Gnass and Abby Emmons, who were cheerleaders, based their costumes on a famous Saturday Night Live skit. The entire cast had to either wear their second costumes under the business suits, or had to do a thirty second change. Although it was hard, the entire cast loved doing the play, and put forth a spectacular production. As Chad Kissinger sums up "It was a lot of work, and we got yelled at, but we all loved it too much to quit."

A s guitar riffs and drum beats fill the air, four bands are hoping to be the winner of this year's Battle of the Bands.

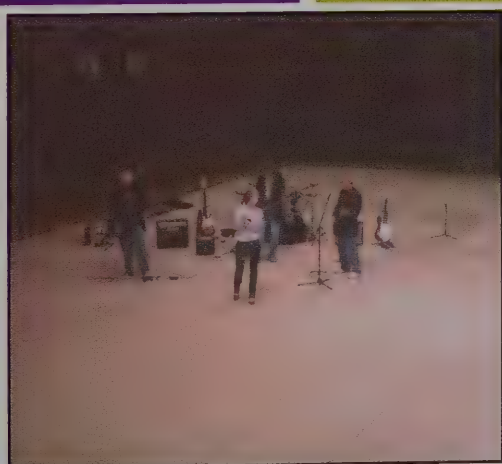

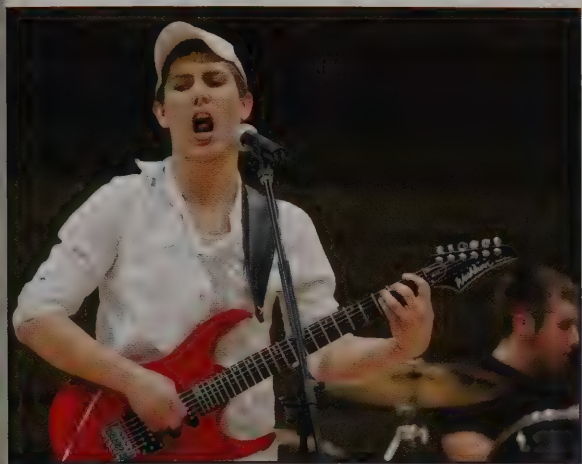

This year was the second annual Battle of the Bands. The student council holds this event every spring. This year four bands from Mishawaka High School played. They were Undead Funeral, The Orlando Project, Orifice 10, and Crome Rose.

In Crome Rose, there is David Peck on bass, Andrew Lauver on drums, Keaton Smith on guitar, and Jeremy McDaniel on vocals and guitar. The Orlando Project has Joe Flatt on guitar, Kirk Kuespert on bass, Steve Gleissner on guitar, David Schroeder on drums, and Melanie Bracey on vocals. The band Orifice 10 includes Jacob Cramer on bass, Jason Wertz on guitar, Kyle Null on guitar and vocals, and Michael Spencer on drums. For Undead Funeral, there is Joey Finn on guitar, Zack Simmons on bass, David Davis on drums, Shane Hunter on vocals, and Tyler L. on guitar.

The winner of Battle of the Bands was Crome Rose, followed by Orifice 10, Undead Funeral, and then The Orlando Project.

Each band spent numerous hours practicing for Battle of the Bands. Keaton Smith said, "During the week before Battle of the Bands, we (Crome Rose) spent three hours after school each day practicing. We wanted to be positive that we had all the songs perfect." Crome Rose played classic rock songs, such as The Beatles "Drive My Car" and an original blues song called "Wednesday".

There was a cover charge to get into Battle of the Bands and a one dollar charge to buy additional votes. Voting was twenty-five percent of the judging. The other seventy-five percent was based on the opinions of three judges. Most of the profits from Battle of the Bands was donated to a number of charities by the student council.

he red carpet is down, and the cameras are flashing. Mishawaka's Prom 2005 is full of stars.

On May 7, 2005, the Mishawaka students participated in the dance of the year, Prom. The prom this year was held at no spot other than the Mishawaka F.O.P. The prom started at 8 p.m. and ended at midnight. Most students went as couples, however, it was not unusual to see students with a group of friends. The cost of tickets was $21, and they were sold for three weeks. Most couples went and took pictures at Shiojiri Gardens, a Mishawaka tradition. Following pictures, most students went out to eat, or made a nice dinner at home. Girls wore formal dresses and guys rented tuxedos in numerous colors from black to white. The theme colors of the dance were red and gold, and the Hollywood theme was "Red Carpet Affair".

Prom court was selected by the student body prior to May 7th. Elliot Sienicki and Hope Grame were crowned Senior Prom King and Queen. Everyone had a wonderful time dancing the night away.

Afterwards, there were various activities that took place. Many students got together with friends, while other went home for a good night's rest before Sunday. The day after prom, many students went to the beach or Cedar Point. It was a time to gather with friends and enjoy a nice day outside. No matter how the weekend ended, everyone had a wonderful time at this year's prom.

he sweat, the drive,

your peers. Class Olympics was a prime example of extreme athletic

Class Olympics is a night where freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors, teachers, and the PTA come together to compete. Each group competes against one another for honor, glory, and the ability to say they are #1. The rigorous activities range from dodgeball to the pudding eating contest. The events were the egg toss, dodgeball, pudding eating contest, pyramid, three point shoot out, three-legged race, tug of war, the bat-twirl, and the school song. Dodgeball is always one of the favorites. It is one of the most intense activities of the night. Juniors won the dodgeball event for the night. Patrick Day (Jr.) was a member of winning dodgeball team. He said, "Class Olympics was an upset because we got second, but it was fun because we dominated dodgeball." The places were seniors first, juniors second, freshmen third, sophomores fourth, teachers fifth, and the PTA sixth. The teachers made a valiant effort in the pudding eating contest. Their representative, Ms. Moyett, did her best to get the teachers the win. She said, "My favorite animal is a pig. Can't you tell by the picture?" A newcomer to the Class Olympics was freshman Ryan Warmoth. He competed in dodgeball, the egg toss, and the pyramid. Ryan said, "Class Olympics was fun. The egg toss was definitely the toughest event, but the best team came out on top. Ryan and his partner Kyle Heatherly won the egg toss event. The three point shoot out was an event where ability came into play. Craig Heatherly, one of the shooters for the juniors, made a majority of his shots. He and Colin Wojtysiak made it possible for the juniors to win that event. Craig said, "The Class of 2006 getting cheated in the class olympics two years in a row sounds a little fishy, it is a conspiracy." The juniors were in agreement that each year the class of 2006 gets cheated. The pyramid was an event where teamwork came into play a lot. The group of ten people with the most discipline would come out on top, literally. The pyramid was scored by time. The last event of Class Olympics was the singing of the school song. Groups did whatever they could to make themselves stand out. There were chest pumps, cartwheels, and cheerleading stunts. After all the attempts seniors came out on top.

The feeling of adrenaline rushing through your body as you reach the top.

Every year students who have perfect attendance are rewarded with a trip to Cedar Point. This year 25 students received this award. Students along with selected staff left early morning and returned later that night. Students traveled by school bus for the four hour ride. This was definitely at the top of many of the students' least favorite thing about the trip list. Once the students arrived, the bus ride was all but forgotten. The cost of the trip for students was free. The only expense for the students was lunch and any souvenirs that they wanted to purchase. Students were able to break up into groups and wander the park as they liked.

The students had the opportunity to push their adrenaline levels by going on such rides as Wicked Twister, Millenium Force, and Top Thrill Dragster. Chereece Garren (So) spent most of her time hopping from ride to ride. "I enjoyed being with my friends and making a fool out of myself on the rides." The weather cooperated slightly for the students as it sprinkled and was overcast for most of the trip. Overall, students really enjoyed the trip and look forward to perfect attendance next year. Hopefully Mother Nature will smile her rays of sunshine on that particular day next year.

(Left) Many student enjoyed the freedom to explore the park. They were free to explore on their own, but they must stay with the group they were assigned.

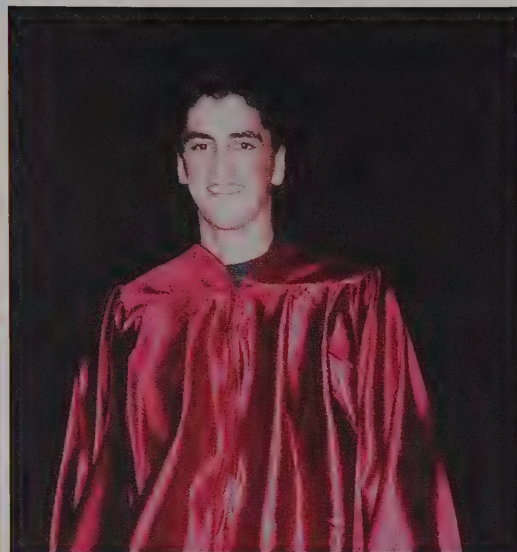

The feeling of accomplishment mixed with the fear of the unknown.

There are two events that the seniors look forward to every year (besides graduation and prom). These events are the Senior Excellence Dinner and the Senior Academic Awards Ceremony. These events are held in the spring and are seen by many seniors as milestones on the way to their exodus from MHS. The Senior Excellence Dinner was created three years ago by Mrs. Rachel Etherington. It honors students who have maintained a 3.5 G.P.A for seven semesters. Students were able to honor one teacher who has had the greatest impact on them during their four years of high school. The dinner was followed by a presentation of special certificates that honored the students for their excellence both in and out of the classroom.

The other event was the Senior Academic Awards Ceremony. This allowed to students to get a taste of what graduation would feel like. Students were encouraged to wear their caps and gowns for the presentation of the awards. The students were given awards from each department including Publications, English, Science, etc. These awards were voted on by the teachers and given to those students who showed leadership in the subject area or most improved. This senior class was extraordinary in its accomplishments and the award ceremony proved this. Next year's senior class definitely have bug shoes to fill.

ENGLISH

English opens your eyes to the world. The literature read in English classes enables students to discover new cultures and ideas. Grammar, well, ask your English teacher why they teach that. They should have an answer.

Original is a word many students choose to describe Mrs. Bottorff. She teaches English 12 and English 11 honors. She has taught in the Mishawaka School system for twenty-six years. She enjoys teaching because, "teenagers are interesting people".

Charles Dickens, John Donne, and William Shakespeare are a few of Mrs. Bottorff's favorite authors. She likes to show the movie Mel-in-Tights, commonly known as Shakespeare's Hamlet. Spotted around her room are student works, mementos from her travels, and awards.

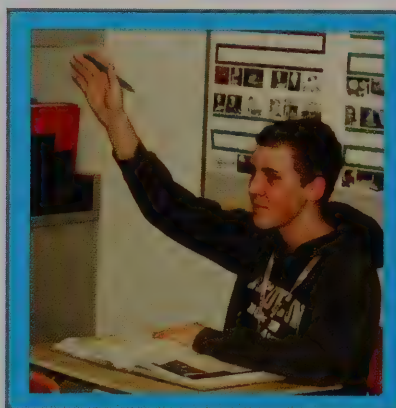

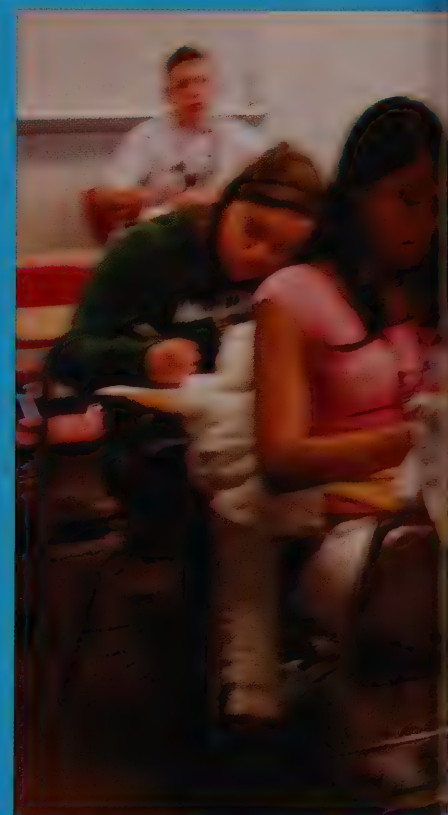

If Mrs. Bottorff could change Mishawaka High School, she would eliminate the non-productive tasks teachers are asked to do. She would also like to see career orientation begun sooner.

Mrs. Bottorff sponsors National Honor Society. The group is a national organization that recognizes outstanding high school juniors and seniors for their scholarship, service, character, and leadership. Mrs. Bottorff says, "As sponsor, I supervise the selection process of members, the induction ceremony, and the election as well as installation of new officers each year."

Mrs. Bottorff enjoys her career most when students come back to see her and tell her how well she prepared them for college. It is a very pleasing moment for Mrs. Bottorff, because she feels her career has helped others in life.

"I am in Mrs. Born's Freshman English Class. My favorite activities in English are doing grammar pages and writing."

PUBLICATIONS

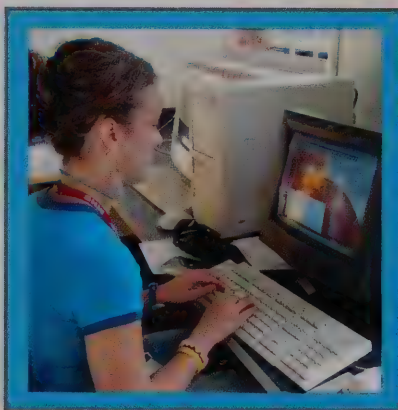

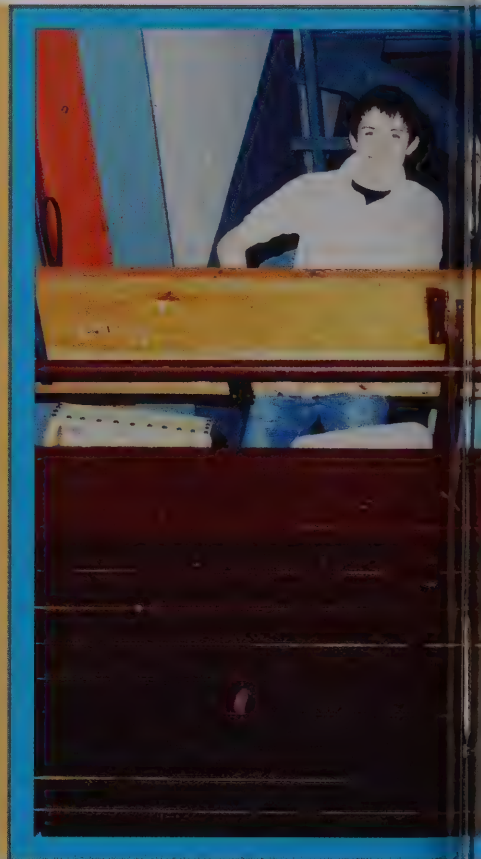

The pressure mounts. The deadlines approach. Just another week in the life of a staff member on the Alltold and Miskodeed.

"Dealing with Jeremy Lacey after he has consumed a 'Red Bull'." A quote from first year yearbook adviser, Ms. Angela Stillson, when asked what the most challenging aspect about being in charge of the yearbook staff was. After two year adviser Mrs. Laurie Coffell resigned from her duties of yearbook adviser, the MHS crew needed an involved, energetic and enthusiastic person to fill her shoes. This is Ms. Stillson's first year here at MHS. Not only is she in charge of the yearbook staff but she also teaches English. "This year was full of new experiences and frustrations." Ms. Stillson had her hands full this year as the adviser. Not only did she have to deal with a staff that had only a selected few that were veterans of the yearbook process but she had to cope with numerous amounts malfunctioning equipment. "My best memory this year was getting to know the students better as people. But with the positives come the negatives, such as finding out that all the files for certain events had been corrupted." When asked about her future here at MHS as a teacher and as an adviser she replied with, "ask me again in June when my stress level has deteriorated." Although, this was merely Ms. Stillson's first year at Mishawaka High School, she says that she will miss her graduating class. "I will miss the cohesiveness of the group and listening to Jeremy Lacey and Bethany Nelson argue." Thankfully, due to Ms. Stillson's help and the assistance of her staff, she'll never be too far away from the granduating class. All it will take is a flip through the yearbook.

The staff of the Alltold take their group shot from a different angle.

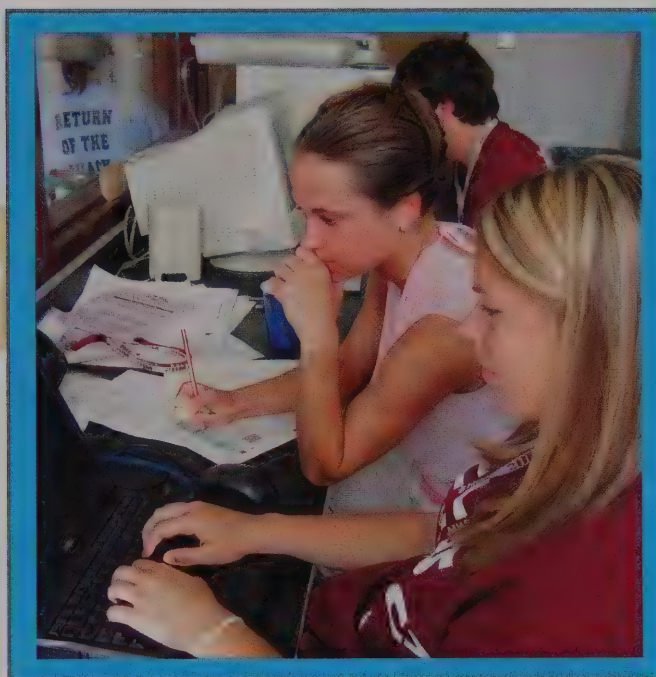

Julia Smith (So) types away to finish her section for the yearbook. Many students learned the importance of deadlines when it came to putting a yearbook together.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Taking a Foreign Language can be fun, but it can also take a lot of time. Mishawaka High School has a variety of foreign language classes to choose from including French, German, Japanese, and Spanish.

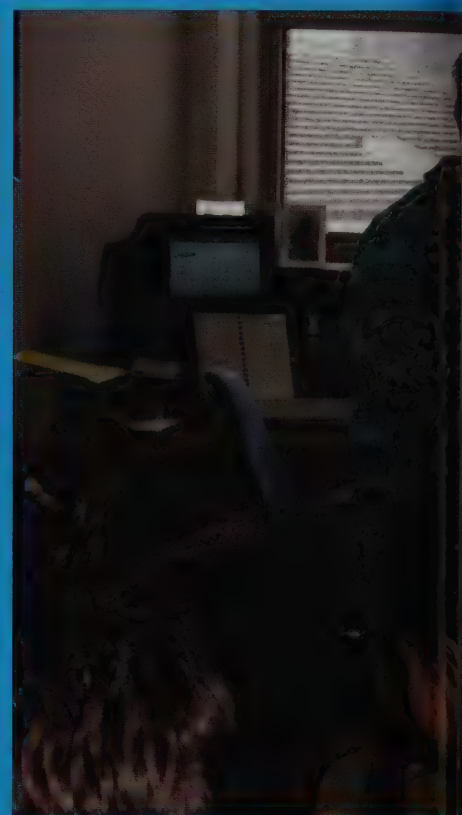

Mrs. Kertes has been teaching French at Mishawaka High School for the past twelve years. Her favorite part about teaching French is that "there is a whole other world out there, and I love the French language." When she comes to school, she looks forward to having a good day. Mrs. Kertes said, "The worst part about teaching is all the paperwork." She has not always wanted to be a teacher though. She was going to college to get a degree in business and then planned on going to law school. The things that she enjoys the most about teaching are "my students, they are fun to work with, and I love coming up with new ideas and different ways to do and teach things." When asked what her most memorable moment, she said, "Several years ago I had this girl for one semester, and she was nice and really sweet. She moved, and a year later I received a letter, and in the letter it said, 'You have touched my life.' Out of the blue I received this letter saying that I made a difference in her life, and since then, we have kept in touch." The most embarrassing thing she did in school was when she previewed a video, except for the last five minutes. "I thought a video on Paris was very appropriate, but not the last five minutes. Once we were a few seconds into the last five minutes, I turned it off and I was as red as a beet." Mrs. Kertes misses her children most of all when she is teaching, but likes being able to come to a place where she enjoys the students. On the weekends she looks forward to sleeping and playing with her children. Outside of school, Mrs. Kertes takes classes and is a "chauffeur" for her children. "I take them to soccer and gymnastics." She loves to read and would like to watch more television. She also enjoys jogging and exercise. Her favorite saying in French is "Je ne suis pas dictionnaire: I am not a dictionary."

"I love introducing students to new things beyond their backyard."

SOCIAL STUDIES

Social Studies teaches you about the world, its history, and its various regions. Students at MHS can take Geography, World History, Government, US History, or Economics. Discover the world!

Mr. Chris Kowalewski is a world history and geography teacher here at MHS. Mr. Kowalewski has been teaching for three years. He was a full time substitute for three years before deciding to become a teacher. When asked why he wanted to become a teacher, he replied, "I wanted a profession where I could make a difference and affect people's lives for the better. Plus, it's never boring."

Along with teaching at MHS, Mr. Kowalewski coaches girl's track and the boys' and girls' cross country teams. He loves the personalities of the athletes on his track and cross-country teams. When asked what he likes best about the students at MHS, he answered, "The uniqueness of their personalities. The teenage years are such a confusing, ever-changing time in a person's life. It's fun to watch students grow into themselves."

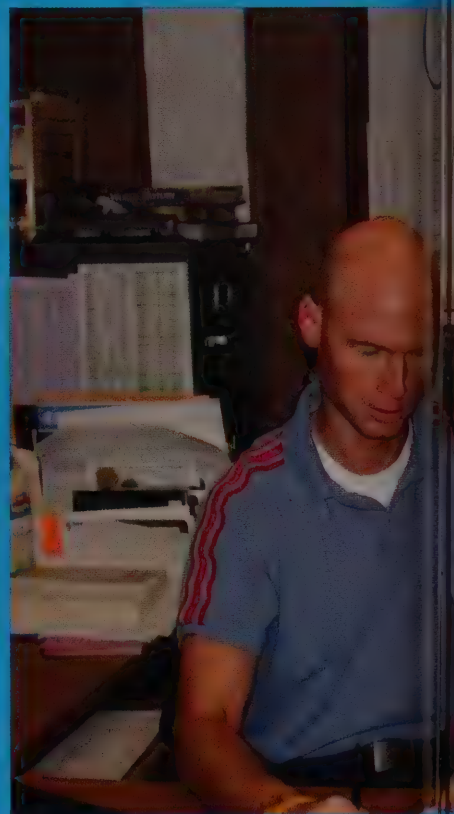

The most memorable question he has ever been asked is, "When you shower, do you still use conditioner on your hair?" In response he replied, "I'm bald!" When the bell rings, he is known for quoting the phrase, "Run away, run away!" from the movie Monty Python and the Holy Grail.

His favorite country is Australia, where he spent three weeks in 1994. While on a run, he got lost in the outback. He was stuck in a field full of huge spiders. He said it was still a neat place to visit even though he hated the spiders.

MATHEMATICS

Everything from Geometry to Algebra, Mr. Davidson's class always adds up. Math is used in everyone's lives daily and in many jobs in the work force today. No matter what, sooner or later you have to learn it.

Math is one of those subjects that most people either enjoy or hate doing. Mr. Davidson is one of the many math teachers here at Mishawaka who enjoys it very much. He's been teaching in the Math department for 25 years at Mishawaka and 4 years at Marian High School before that. When asked what made him decide to go into the Math department, he commented, "I wanted to coach so I needed to get into education and Math was my favorite subject that came natural to me."

Mr. Davidson got his Masters in teaching at Indiana University and is currently teaching Algebra and Geometry. He was also the boys basketball coach here. His best memory was when the team took home the sectional crown.

When asked about what he thought of all the construction going on throughout the school, he said, "You have to put up with it in order to make improvements." Mr. Davidson said he was not affected by the new Freshman Academy. He generally teaches sophomores for Geometry and freshman in Algebra 1 but sometimes has juniors and seniors. On his spare time he runs a business with his wife and likes to play golf. All in all Mr. Davidson said he's really enjoyed his teaching career here at MHS.

"I really like the students at Mishawaka. They are very friendly and fun to work with."

SCIENCE

With a wide variety of science classes, the students of M.H.S. are not all learning the same thing. Some are learning why things move, while others are learning the way things live.

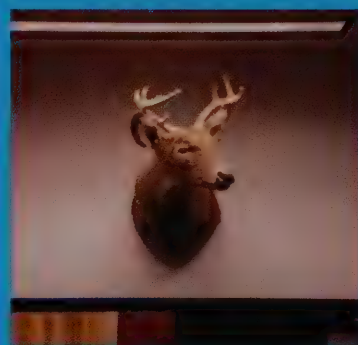

Mr. Manuszak has been teaching for twenty seven years and has been one of the Biology teachers at Mishawaka High School for the past twenty three years.

When asked why he chose to teach Biology, he said he chose the subject "because of all the relationships between living things." Thinking back on all the years, Mr. Man says the funniest moment in his class was when a snake went in his shirt and then into his pants when he was giving a demonstration. He was hospitalized at the beginning of the school year due to a tumor in his small intestine. When asked how it affected his teaching, he said, "It helped me be more compassionate and appreciate coming to work." Along with his many accomplishments, Mr. Manuszak has been head of the food drive for almost twenty five years at School City. He got involved with the food drive because he likes "being able to help others in need and giving back to the community." While talking about accomplishments, he said, "The biggest accomplishment from my job is seeing young people live their lives and use the gifts that God gave them." Mr. Manuszak is one of the busiest people I've ever met, but he always makes time for his students. He's always doing something or going somewhere to get everything done. "The main reason I stick with teaching Biology is that I like having the opportunity to help influence the lives of teenagers. Biology is very practical."

BUSINESS

The definition of business in the dictionary is: an immediate task or objective or a serious activity requiring time and effort. That is exactly what Mrs. Britton teaches her class to be ready for.

Mrs. Doris Britton has been teaching at Mishawaka for six years. After attending college at Cleveland State, Our Lady of The Lake, Antonio Texas University of Toledo, and Western Michigan University, Mrs. Britton decided she wanted to become a teacher. She teaches many classes here at MHS, some of which are Business, Accounting, Computer Applications, and Keyboarding. "Business is very interesting. It is life skills you will always use. If you are going to work in a business, you need these classes."

In her free time, Mrs. Britton enjoys cooking and traveling. Here at MHS, Mrs. Britton has had some funny and also some strange times. The strangest thing that has ever happened to her was the time she came back from Christmas break and found that she had no electricity in her office and her refrigerator had melted. Mrs. Britton is known as a fun-loving teacher at MHS. When asked if she has any strange habits that she likes to do during class, Mrs. Britton replied by saying "The Hokie Pokie! I make every class do it." After teaching at MHS for six years, Mrs. Britton always loves to hear how she has helped her students in some way. "My favorite memories at Mishawaka is when students come back and tell me that they use exactly what I taught them!"

In high school, Mrs. Britton enjoyed band and co-op. She also said, "Today kids make a lot more money than we did when I was in high school. Students today also have more opportunities." Through her teaching, Mrs. Britton has said, "Business is a practical class. It is for everyone. It teaches you what you will be doing in the world once you leave Mishawaka."

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

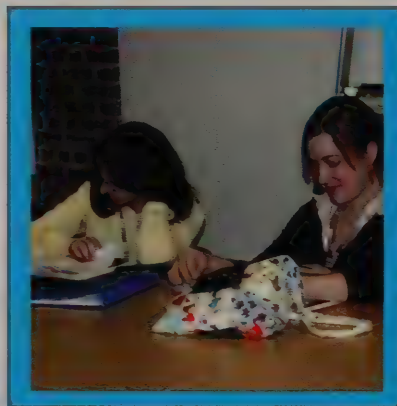

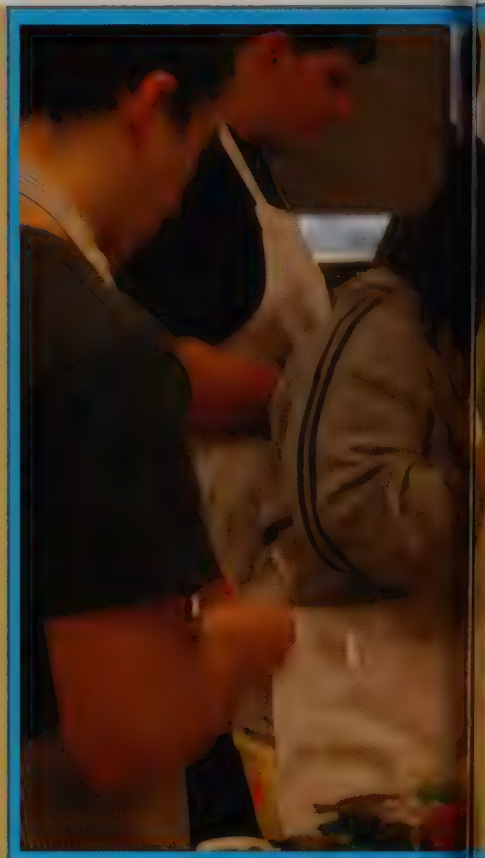

Want to get away from all the normal classes like Math and English? Family and Consumer Sciences are the classes for you. FACS are some of the most fun classes that will stick with you forever.

Family and Consumer Sciences (FACS) are some of the most enjoyable electives that MHS has to offer. It includes Nutrition and Wellness, Prostart, Fashion and Textiles, Child Development and Interpersonal Relations. The Nutrition and Wellness wing of the building is brand new this year, and everyone that uses the new rooms love the new facilities. Mrs. Marilyn Havens, one of our favorite FACS teachers, is also new to the MHS staff. She's been teaching at MHS for almost two years now. Mrs. Havens says that the classes she teaches prepares students for life, and can possibly give the students opportunities for careers in the future, or maybe just prepare them for Prostart, the advanced foods class. The best reason for taking FACS classes, however, is to have fun. Mrs. Havens and the rest of the FACS staff try to choose recipes that students will like and that are easy to make, like cinnamon rolls and lasagna. Students say that potato soup and pumpkin pie rolls were their favorite recipes. The students didn't enjoy every recipe, though. Katie Lechlitner and her cooking group agree that Taco Bake was their least favorite recipe to cook.

Sometimes you have to be careful in FACS classes. Kids have had their hands caught in mixers, and once a student pulled a rat out of a drain and it bit him! So you really learn a lot of things about life in FACS classes: watch your hands and keep an eye on the drain!

I MADE IT!

Amanda Young (Jr) and Kara Leniski (So) enjoy themselves in their fashion and textiles class. They love all the things they make in the class everyday.

Gary Pynaert (Jr) really enjoys his Nutrition and Wellness class. He knows that the new skills he has learned, like measuring accurately and setting a table correctly, will benefit him in the future in the real world. After all, Gary only has a little bit of time before he graduates, and he needs all the help he can get before he's gone!

PREVOCATIONAL

Special teachers help special students succeed in math, reading, and life skills. Not only are they taught the academics needed to graduate high school, but they are also taught skills that will reward them later in life.

When people were asked to describe Mrs. Jennifer Mammolenti, some of the responses that were received were dedicated, sincere, motivated, caring, full of life, and loving. Mrs. Mammolenti is Mishawaka High School's special needs teacher. She has been teaching for a total of eight years, four of which are at MHS. When Mrs. Mammolenti was asked why she chose to work with special needs she responded with, "I enjoy the challenge over general education." And what a challenge it sometimes can be, but like her students, Mrs. Mammolenti never gives up. "I make a difference in my students' lives by preparing them for the real world." When working with the special needs, small achievements can be the most rewarding. "When a student after much dedicated practice finally learns what you've taught them, it is extremely satisfying." Not only does Mrs. Mammolenti take on a full time job of being a teacher at MHS, she is also an educator and provider at home with her three children and the fourth on the way. In the limited free time that Mrs. Mammolenti has, she enjoys reading, gardening, and playing with her children. As long as Mishawaka High School has dedicated teachers like Mrs. Mammolenti, students will continue excell.

Mrs. Mammolenti assists Casey Saffold and Kevin Pontius in a writing lesson. Being able to read, comprehend, and write in the classroom will help the students tremendously when they enter the work force.

Stephanie Frazier and Courtney Bragg take time to enjoy a coloring activity. After group work the students were able to relax and chat with friends while they colored.

CONCENTRATION

Alison Kizer intensively focuses on her writing assignment. Staying on task and being dedicated to one's work will help them excel after their high school experience.

Art

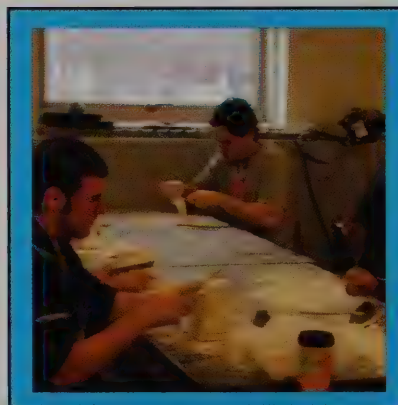

Students in the Art Department have been taking their work to a whole new level. Students that grasp concepts and put forth effort into their work will bring out their true artistic potential.

Fascinated by art at a young age around seven, Mrs. Neises began creating and producing art. She has continued to do so for over thirty years. Teaching 2-D Art, Fiber Arts, and one year of Sculpture and Ceramics, she has taught a total of five years at MHS. Mrs. Neises says that she enjoys sculpture most of all, followed by drawing.

Her funniest and most embarrassing moment was in her Ceramics class. She stated "I had a rash and had to wear rubber-duct taped gloves!" Mrs. Neises said that this experience was made worse when she had to go outside wearing them during a stormdrill. In spite of all of this she still hopes to be teaching years from now, doing work in bronze sculpture, and encouraging young aspiring artists to promote their work in art shows. Mrs. Neises' favorite colors are red and pink. She stated, "I can not imagine doing anything other than teaching or promoting art in some form." In her free time she likes to kick back and relax or go to the Meijer Sculpture Gardens in Michigan. All in all, according to Mrs. Neises, everyone has an artistic gift that must come sooner or later.

INDUSTRIAL TECHNOLOGY

Students and Mr. Modlin speak out about building cars, having fun, and how strict Mr. Modlin is exactly. In this class, your guaranteed to have a good time, or your money back! (Not really...)

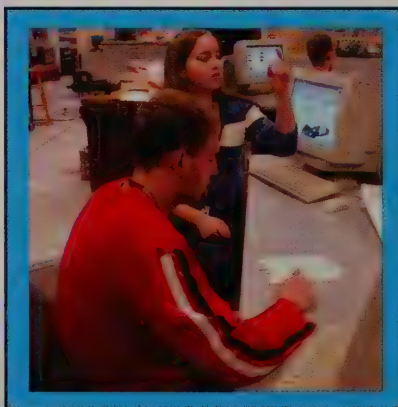

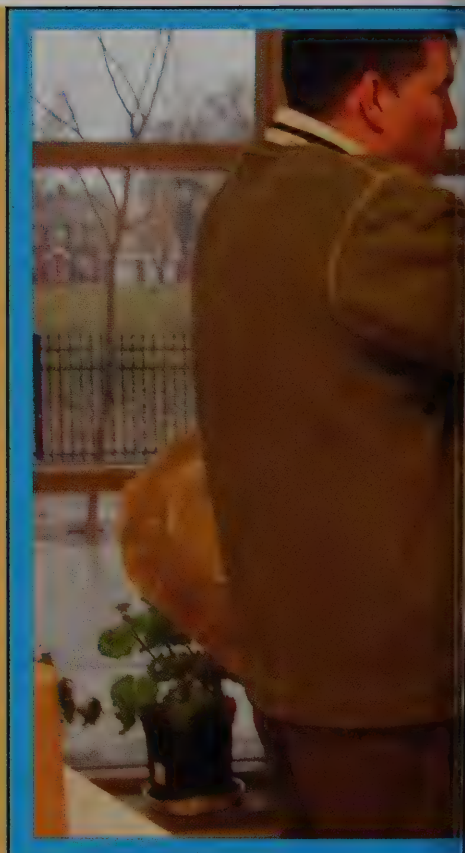

Mr. Paul Modlin has been at MHS for fourteen years teaching Industrial Technology. When walking into his classroom you'll usually find him at a student's side instructing them or giving them tips about how to properly construct their car. His classroom is not the typical teacher and student setting. Mr. Modlin says the biggest advantage to that is the students get to sit down and focus on what they want to learn. The car making process has run pretty smoothly this year. There has been one minor accident, a student got a piece of fiber glass in his eye and had to be taken to the hospital. When asked if it was hard to motivate his students after such set backs he avidly responded "We don't have motivational problems in here. My students are always very focused and they tough it out." In Mr. Modlin's class the students design, build, and race their very own car. Students are also responsible for raising funds to build the cars. This year everyone raised a collective $6000.00. The Army also sponsored the class by donating $2100.00. Mr. Modlin says that the $6000 will enable the class to build two cars. On the actual construction of the car, Mr Modlin is not very involved. "I try to remain as hands off as possible. I'll only help if I'm asked. This is the students car, and want them to be able to say they built it. I'm merely a guide," says Mr. Modlin. This year, other MHS students have complained about the smell omitted from the glue the Tech class uses. When asked about it, Mr. Modlin just laughs. "I don't care what the other kids say!" he jokes. "Me and my students have become accustomed to the smell. It really doesn't bother us anymore." When you walk into his class, you also notice the lack of females. Mr. Modlin says that usually a third of his students in all his classes are female. It really doesn't matter whether the students are male or female, they all agree, Mr. Modlin is not strict. When asked about this, the students' laughter echoed throughout the room. "All and all, everyone agrees the most rewarding day is the day after the race. "We can all finally relax because the car is done."

BRIDGE BUILD

NEVER A DULL MOMENT

"We do all sorts of fun and interesting projects in Mr. Modlin's class. Like we built a bridge out of straws, tape, and string one day. I wasn't very good at it, but it was fun any way. In this class we get to do a lot more hands on stuff."

BUILDINGTRADES

The Mishawaka High School Building Trades class gives students experience in building a house from the ground up. They learn the “tricks of the trade” and other interesting techniques that could aid them in their future careers.

Mr. David Chimel has been teaching the Mishawaka Building Trades class for 15 years. His interest in construction is what first got him involved in teaching this class. Mr. Chimel is more than qualified to teach Building Trades; before becoming a teacher, he worked as a union contractor. He began his teaching career as a substitute at Penn and then at Mishawaka. He became so interested in the program that he decided to take the job after the old teacher retired. “Sod Day” is his favorite part of building a house. “It means that we are completely finished building the house,” he said. Because Mr. Chimel doesn’t teach any other classes, he is able to put all his attention into the building of the house. He personally interviews all applicants for the program. “I choose the students based on their application and interview, as well as their PSO record and attendance habits,” he explained. “The applicant must be willing to put effort into this class; it’s not something you can sleep through.” According to Mr. Chimel, the experience that the class gives students is very helpful in the real world; about 60% of students in the class will eventually go into construction-related careers. Mr. Chimel works very hard to give his students practical experience so they can go on to be successful in the workplace. He dedicates his time every day to ensure that his students are getting the most out of the program.

MR. CLEAN

Thomas Shown (Sr) sweeps up a construction. The class was responsible for building as well as cleaning up. “The house needs to be clean when we leave!” said Thomas.

Patrick Stamm (Jr) takes time out of his busy work schedule to pose for a picture. "This class is a lot of hard work," he said, "but it's also a lot of fun." The class meets the first two blocks of every day to make sure the house is complete on time. "Mr. Chimel checks all of our work when we're done to make sure that everything is right," stated Richard Landells (Sr).

Brent Gustafson (Sr) works on the cabinetry in the kitchen at the House. The class pays very close attention to the details of the house to give it a personal feeling.

LIFE LESSONS

Richard Landells (Sr) and Richard Hoover (Jr) carefully place a duct in the basement of the Building Trades House. "This class is a great learning experience, especially for someone who wants to go into a construction career" said Hoover.

HEALTH & P.E.

Getting in shape and staying that way, the super exciting way. Students learn how to be healthy and live for a really long time.

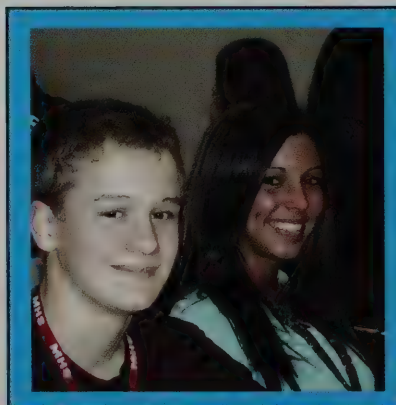

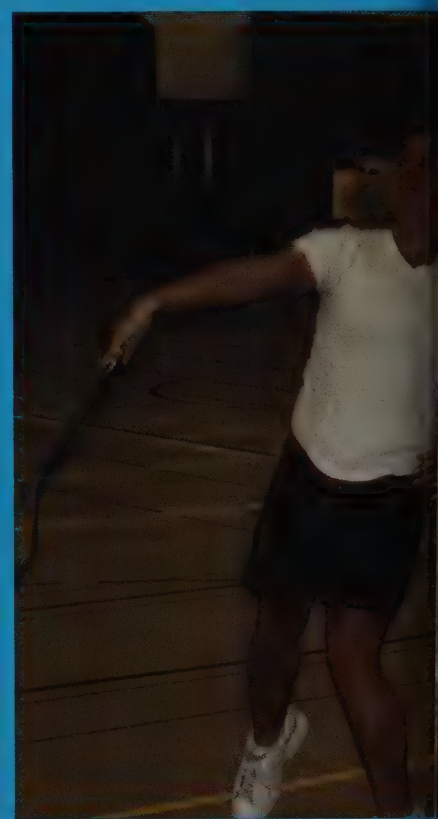

Mr. Steve Jones has been at teacher at Mishawaka High School for 11 years. He teaches Health and P.E. Mr. Jones has had 36 years of teaching experience, and 11 of them have been at Mishawaka High School. He says that his favorite part of P.E. to teach is swimming. He said he enjoys teaching when the students are involved in what they are learning. He likes the variety of the activities the students get to participate in. He said that his least favorite part of teaching is when "Kids pick on other kids and ruin it for everybody." His most memorable teaching experience is when a girl thought she was drowning in the shallow end. He believes it is important for students to take P.E. and health so they will be prepared on how to live a healthy life, to gain the awareness of its importance. When Mr. Jones is not teaching he enjoys biking, kayaking, walking, shopping, and fishing. After he retires from working he plans on traveling out west and exploring the National Railway. He also plans to go fishing in Canada. Mr. Jones said "I do not mind the construction, even though the health rooms are new and they are not set up how I want them." He has been teaching for 35 years, and he knows how he wants his room set up. He decided to become a teacher because he had a really excellent teacher when he was young. He was an athlete in school and wanted to coach when he started to work. He says that students need to see the importance of a strong body and a strong mind. Mr. Jones is very committed to getting students prepared for the real world, in the sense that they need to stay active and healthy.

"P.E. is my favorite class, I like playing basketball."

CHOIR

With hectic schedules and tons of music to learn, the Choir at MHS has their hands and vocals chords full!

Becky Wilson is the director for all the choirs at Mishawka High School, but there is an unsung hero in our midst. Elaine Lange is the pianist for all three choirs, and she even plays for the musicals at MHS. All the students adore Mrs. Lange. Most students know her even from as far back as the seventh grade. The cast of the musicals are particularly fond of her, and call her Lange Lange. Mrs. Lange even bought some of the students special gifts which she presented to them at the Choral Rewards Dinner. For example, Mrs. Lange said "There's one boy in our choir who is always whining. I asked him one day why he does it, and he said that he's just show boating. Well, Gary, here's your boat!" She then held out a small plastic boat to junior Gary Cassler. She also presented special items to senior Josh Black and junior John Carlson. "There's two boys in our choir who always competed for me to wear their jerseys on those designated staff days. Well come here, John and Josh." She then produced two white t-shirts which had their individual numbers on the front, and the phrase "Lange #1" on the back. Seniors hugged Mrs. Lange in an emotional good bye on their last day. They all vowed to return and see her and the rest of the choir in the future. Mrs. Lange always has a smile on her face and a dish full of candy on her desk! As Chad Kissinger sums it up, "She's very laid back, and we love her!"

"We all tend to misbehave sometimes, but we always give a great performance."

The Student Council sponsor this year was Mr. Breske. He did a good job organizing events and brought some new ideas in, such as the Euchre tournament for cancer and the dodgeball tournament for tsunami victims.

Student Prayer

Mr. Manuszak, Jessica Beebler, Alisia Porter

The student prayer group met bright and early every Thursday morning before school. They joined together in prayer for our government, school, and family and friends. Mr. Manuszak led them in discussions and gave them good, heart-felt advice every morning. His words of wisdom often had to do with helping others, which everyone here at MHS knows is his specialty.

NHS Seniors

Have you ever wanted to go on Jeopardy and use one of those buzzers? Then quiz bowl is the team for you! Practices were held every Monday after school, while matches were held on Wednesday versus different schools from around the area. The questions they were asked were anything from world geography to English Literature.

Japanese Club

Front row: Jessica Beebler, Rachel Fomks, Brittani Jones, Philip Melin, Margaret Winey. Second row: Mrs. Schalliol, Kenneth Edds, Benjamin Galacia, David Bowman, Michael Nelson, Mrs. Raffelock

The Japanese club met every Monday after school in Mrs. Raffelock's room. They might have studied the language a little, but the main purpose was to discover the very unique Japanese culture in depth. An hour and a half every other day just wasn't enough for them. They had a good time learning to make oragami and they even got to eat some good food once in a while.

Frontrow: Kathryn Baranowski, Michelle Ferris, Amber Ludwig, Brandi Smith, Sean Flemming, Brittany Hojnacki, Laisy Winkler, Erin Koczan, Corrine Hendrickson. Back row: Mr. Chamberlin, Burgundy Lods, Aaron Dome, Jessica Hartman, Samantha Nicodemus, Misty Richardson

If you've ever been to one of our MHS plays and loved it, you have our stage crew to thank. There are so many things that go on behind the scenes that we, the audience, don't even think about. The stage crew works months in advance preparing the set. On opening night they are in charge of the lighting and the sound.

There are six different academic teams, including science, math, English, fine arts, social studies, and interdisciplinary. Although the superbowl team only has one main competition every year, they put a lot of time and effort into practicing for it.

Over the course of about 4 or 5 months, members of the Science Olympiad team researched assigned topics and then actually built the projects they were assigned. They had one main competition at the end of the season that was held at Goshen College. Spencer Patterson (Jr) said, "This year we did pretty well, but I'm looking forward to next year where hopefully we'll do even better."

Give them any word and I bet they can spell it. The Mishawaka High School spell bowl team practiced very hard almost every day after school for 3 or 4 months out of the school year. All that practice certainly paid off for them. They advanced onto the state level for the second year in a row. We're looking forward to next year to being even better. Congratulations!

DECA

Mary Peebles, Cody DeSmith, Heather Swift, Mrs. Forler

In DECA individuals compete in competitions and take part in quite a few other tasks. Some of those include taking and producing quizzes and tests, role playing for judges, and creating projects. Each member is allowed to pick two or three areas of interest and then compete in those areas.

Stratford

This group is definitely for the Shakespeare lover. The Stratford club attended a Shakespeare festival in Canada where they got to watch many Shakesperian plays. However prior to making this $360 trip, the members attended classes about the plays they were going to be seeing. They read the plays, discussed them, and even kept journals.

Those who were in the Speech and Debate club were very busy every weekend through October to March. They traveled to various high schools around the state where around 300 students participated. It was a very formal event. Male students wore a suit and tie while females wore professional looking skirts. Mrs. Britton, the sponsor, said of the club, "Even though it was quite time consuming, we had a lot of fun and got to know each other better."

When asked why they joined Waltonians, many of the group members responded by saying, "We like it because it's a good way to get involved with the school and to help out the environment." Every Thursday after school the Waltonians went around to each classroom and emptied the recycling bins.

The Browse is a organized collection of poems, stories, art work, and photographs created by Mishawaka students. A handful of students spent their time arranging these collections to place in the Browse.

PSI, which stands for postponing sexual involvement, was an organization that went to John Young Middle School to talk with 7th graders about the consequences of sex. It was a 3 week session in which the PSI members gave short speeches, showed them videos, and let them practice how to resist peer pressure.

S.O.A.R. (Students of All Races) is one of the newer groups at Mishawaka High School. Mrs. Britton was their sponsor and founder of the group. Many of the students joined in order to get to know some students of their same race. They met spontaneously throughout the school year to do fun activities, such as picnics, as shown in this picture.

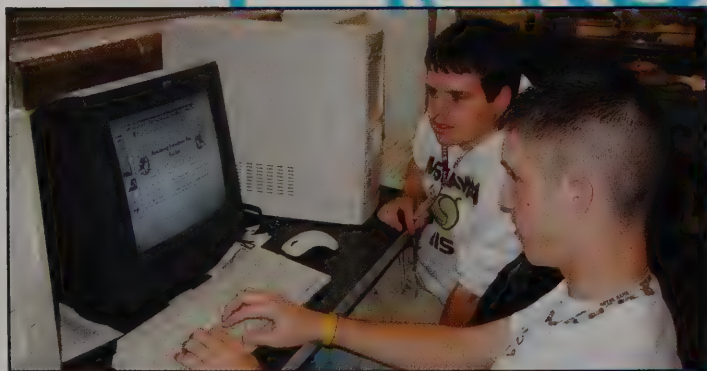

Alltold

Zachary Overhulser, Jeremy Lacey, Nicholas Stauson, Wesley Johnson, Ms. Schnizler

Nicholas Stauson (So) and Wesley Johnson (Jr) work diligently on an article for the Alltold. The Alltold is the title of the Mishawaka High School newspaper. The paper was scheduled to be put out once a month, and was usually on schedule, but the staff ran into some occasional difficulties. "With only 4 staff members, it was sometimes hard to get the paper out on time," said Nicholas.

Want to have half days as a senior (without skipping) and make money at the same time? Business Professionals of America, otherwise known as co-op, is the way to go. Those in co-op went to the first two blocks of each day and then went to work in the afternoon. Many of them agreed that it's a good way to go if you want to get introduced a little early into the business world.

Some members of the yearbook staff take a second out of valuable work time to smile for the camera. Although they had a lot of fun in the class, the staff worked very hard this year in order to make their deadlines and finish on time. There were some stressful moments, but they pulled through and got it done.

Thunderation

We're the Cavemen!

1) Go Crazy! The Mishawaka student section cheers during the Marian game. After winning the spirit award for the second time, Fox 28 named them the "Cavemen Crazies." The Cavemen Crazies were at every game cheering loud. A few even tailgated outside of the stadium before games. "The tailgates were great! We had any kind of food you could think of," explained Kriss High (Sr).

2) Split the Defense. Randolph Schuster (Jr) makes a catch and splits the Kingsmen defense during the Penn game. "Football is all about reactions, you don't think about what you are going to do when you are on the field." Schuster was a very important part to the Cavemen football team this year.

3) Break Away. Nick Turrell (Jr) tries to break through a Marian tackle during this run. Turrell had many important runs for the Cavemen throughout the season. "The hardest thing for a running back is seeing the entire field and knowing what's happening at all times." Turrell was a fixture at running back this season for the Cavemen and looks to improve on his abilities next year.

4) Be Ready. Cavemen receiver Matthew Danaher (Sr) lines up in a game against Marian. Danaher loved playing under the lights every Friday. "Playing under the lights was very exciting." Like many others for the Cavemen, Danaher started on the offensive and defensive sides of the ball.

1) Line up. The Cavemen offense lines up against the Marian defense. The offensive line has a lot of responsibility. Jason Chrapek (Sr) thought, "If I do my job along with the rest of the line, then the play will be successful."

3) Here Come the Cavemen! The Cavemen rush out onto the field prior to the Marian game. "Running onto the field is unlike any other feeling. It's a feeling of pure adrenaline," said Michael Spencer (Sr).

2) Huddle up. The Cavemen defense huddles up during a timeout. "The key to the defense this year was the speed and intensity that was displayed game after game," explained John Carlson (Jr).

4) Wrap him up. Jamie Lukaszewski (Jr) wraps up a Marian runner. "Let's make the play and get the job done," is what Lukaszewski thinks when making a tackle. Lukaszewski made several key tackles for the Cavemen this season.

Matthew Danaher

Senior, wide receiver, and free safety, Matthew Danaher, has played his last football game at Mishawaka. "I'm going to miss suiting up every Friday night," Danaher explained. "Being a Mishawaka football player you have a lot of tradition to live up to. The best part, besides the tradition, is the friends you make." His most memorable moment was making his first touch-down catch his junior year against Clay. Every game the Cavemen sprint onto the field and the crowd goes wild. "The excitement of getting to play under the lights on Friday nights makes it a very special feeling," Danaher said. Danaher hopes that the tradition of Cavemen football carries on long after he is gone. Growing up a Caveman his whole life, Danaher will miss the atmosphere here at Mishawaka.

Intimidation

Cavemen "spike" fear in their opponents

1) Ace! Kelcie Banks (So) serves it up for an ace in the game against LaPorte. There are many traditions that the Mishawaka volleyball team has. "After a victory we always brought down the fans and got in a circle to sing the Chant C-A-V-E-M-E-N," said Banks. Doing this also prepared the team for their next match.

2) YES! Sarah Dietzel (Sr) celebrates after winning a tough rally. The fans were a big part of the celebration as well. "I love the fans when they are loud," said Dietzel. "It definitely helps me play better." Despite the heat and the miserable conditions of the old gym, fans always showed up to support the Cavemen volleyball team.

3) Dig it! Mishawaka's Kathryn Budzinski (Jr) passes the ball to the setter. To have a good game, Budzinski prepared mentally and physically. "We sang and danced in the locker room to get ready for the game," said Budzinski. Doing this helped the team relieve some stress from hard practices and get rid of nerves before the game.

4) Set it up! Katie Hesch (So) sets up a play in the match against LaPorte. "We were very successful as a team this year," said Hesch. The team won the MIC and were ranked in the top five teams in the state. The key to their success was playing hard during practice, and being so close as a team.

1) Teamwork. The six girls on the starting lineup gather in the middle for a huddle before the game begins. "In the huddle we talked about our game strategies and pump each other up," said Staci Paul (So).

3) Spike it down. Jennifer Black (Jr) goes up for the kill. Her teammates surround her ready to cover. "It was really important to work well together. If we didn't, then we wouldn't win," explained Black.

2) Stuffed. Junior Haley Wise blocks the opponent. Wise had a superb season, with an awesome start. "We went to Butler for camp," said Wise. This helped bring the team close and prepare them for the season.

4) Go for the kill. Amber Francis (Jr) spikes the ball at the other team. During the season, the girls were together everyday. "We were really close," said Francis. The great team unity helped the girls to a winning season.

Sarah Dietzel

Senior Sarah Dietzel has been on the varsity volleyball team for four years, and captain for two of those years. Being the only senior, Dietzel had to show many leadership qualities. Her strength and determination led the team to a winning season. "The best part of the season was beating Penn twice and winning NIC," said Dietzel. Her whole high school career as a volleyball player has been a success. While always working hard, Dietzel still found time to have fun and bond with her teammates. One of Dietzel's favorite memories is just playing in the gym with her teammates. "Being around the girls is so much fun." That is certainly the thing she will miss the most as well. The team will lose Dietzel's talent, but will always continue to play hard and have fun.

Dedication

Cavemen charge hills, blowing by competition

1) Shag-Out! Jesse Roberts(Jr), Kirk Kuespert(Jr), Calon Naragon(Sr), Damon Wise(Fr), Jason Giles(So), Cory Naragon(So), Robert Melton(Fr), Nicholas Wiesjahn(So), and Andy Devereaux(Jr), race off the line running a shag-out before the race.

2) Andy Played Guitar! When there was free time, at dunes camp, Andy Devereaux(Jr) could usually be found playing his electric guitar. Here, Jason Giles(So), Kirk Kuespert(Jr), and Cory Naragon(So), are listening to him rock away.

3) Rounding the Bend! Damon Wise (Fr) and Bryan Adams (Fr) round a turn at the NIC meet. This season, Damon made great improvements by helping Mishawaka lower their score, and beat other teams.

4) Strength Work! It was not always fun and games at camp. In between running workouts and cleaning up the trash, getting stronger for the races was another objective. Here some of the boys' and girls' team are doing pushups as part of a contest to see who could do the most in one minute.

1) Bound For Semi-State! Craig Padgett(Fr), Calon Naragon(Sr), Nicholas Wiesjahn(Jr), Michael Spoon(Jr), Andy Devereaux(Jr), Cory Naragon(So), and Kirk Kuespert(Jr) all pose for a picture after placing 3rd at Regionals. The team worked hard all year and qualified for Semi-State.

3) What A Finish! Over the last 100 meters, Sophomore Cory Naragon blows by the leaders in a blazing kick to win the New Prairie Invitational Freshman/Sophomore race in 16:57.

2) Kicking It In! Freshman Craig Padgett kicks down the home stretch towards the finish at the Culver Regional, placing 18th in 17:45. He was the top freshman in the NIC, Sectional, and Regional.

4) Turn And Burn! Freshman Rodney Wilson rounds a turn at the NIC meet. Rodney's time of 20:21 was the fastest he ran this season. This year he was voted Most Improved.

Calon Naragon

Senior Calon Naragon has been running cross country ever since 8th grade. In order to prepare for the season, he ran an average of 75 miles per week. Sometimes using a heart rate monitor and sometimes without. "This year I really enjoyed the Dunes Camp, because I had lots of fun with my friends. I also had time to bond with the freshmen while running the workouts and playing ultimate frisbee on the beach," commented Calon. Half-way through the season at the New Prairie Invitational, he ran a personal best time of 16:57. At the NIC Meet, he finished 4th and earned 1st Team NIC. At the Sectional he finished 7th in 17:46, and at the Regional finished 7th in 17:11. Calon plans on attending Bethel College in the fall and will begin the Pre-Physical Therapy program and earn a Bachelor's Degree in Sports Studies/Exercise Science.

1) Breaking away. Mishawaka Girls XC competes in a 2.5 mile race at their home course, George Wilson Park. George Wilson is notorious for its brutal and incredibly hilly terrain. "I can't get serious before a race. I have to crack a joke to make everyone laugh, but when that gun sounds I am focused and ready to roll," states Stephanie Beck (Fr). The girls only lost to one team while running on their own course.

2) Determination. Rachel Wurz (Sr) strides proudly into the finish honoring a lost XC runner. "This season we remembered Brynn Bergin by wearing green tape on our jerseys and wrists. Brynn will never leave our hearts and minds," said Rachel. The Girl's Cross Country team will continue wearing green tape on their jerseys in the future seasons in tribute to Brynn.

3) Turn and burn. Shelby Morrow (Sr) exhaustively turns and treads up a hill at NIC. "Cross country - yeah practice is tough, and meets are atrocious, but the battle of the mind is the most difficult struggle." This was Shelby's first cross country season, but that didn't prevent her from proving herself. Shelby earned Honorable Mention at the NIC meet, along with Rachel Wurz. Katelyn Eberhart achieved first team.

4) The relief of accomplishment Sienna Valdez (So) completes her run at George Wilson Park. Through the strenuous course, she is driven to finish in the fastest time she can. Sienna says, "During a race, I try to remember all the hard work and dedication I put into cross country".

1) Farewell cake but memories forever. Cross country seniors celebrate their successful season and advancement for the future. "Being a senior is exciting, yet nerve-wracking. I'm going to miss this team beyond belief," says Andrea Tolliver. 3) Senior power. Jacqueline Maguire (Sr), Allyson Reynolds (Sr), Rachel Wurz (Sr), and Andrea Tolliver (Sr) flex their muscles after accomplishing a grueling two hour long "Adventure Run" at Warren Dunes. "The 'Adventure Run' is the best part of the trip," says Maguire. 2) Overpowering the freshmen. Allyson Reynolds (Sr) shows her senior domination over freshmen Stephanie Beck and Katelyn Eberhart. "I have mentally improved since my freshmen year, and I see great potential in the our two new freshmen. 4) Anybody have a fork? Head Coach Chris Kowaleski was plastered with frosting from the cross country's sectional celebration cake. Coach Kowaleski expresses that "this is one of the most enjoyable years I have ever had as coach. The team, from top to bottom, was amazing."

Vanessa Miller

The toughest sport you'll ever love. That is Vanessa Miller's attitude. The Girl's Cross Country team had one of the most outstanding seasons in over twenty-five years. When asked why she felt the team was so successful Vanessa replied, "It is all about friendship and trust. Not only are we all teammates, but they are all my best friends." Vanessa was a three year letter earner and MVP her junior year. She plans on attending IUPUI and becoming a physical therapist. The Girl's Cross Country team also advanced to Semi-State, for the second time in over two decades. "We have come so far from the past few years." Vanessa and the entire team's motto was, "The cowards never started, and the weak died along the way. MTXC! TB!" To understand how they think, you must become one.

Preparation

Soccer team stays confident

1) Rough Play. Michael Blackford (Fr) struggles to break off defenders in attempt to advance the ball up the field. The team unity on the boys' 2004 soccer team "was great," said Michael. "There were no fights and everyone stayed positive and kept their heads up."

3) Catch me if you can! Nicholas Eyster (Sr) breaks away from the defense. The Cavemen played their home games at Emmons Field. Their grueling practices were also held there. "Leg lifts are definitely the hardest thing in practice," Nicholas said.

2) A goal in sight! Brandon Addison (Jr) dribbles the ball up field in hopes of scoring a goal. Before every game, Brandon led the team in a prayer. His favorite part of the season was "spending time with guys on the team and the team dinners, of course."

4) Kickin' it! Benjamin Marshall (Fr) passes the ball to a teammate on the field. He felt this year's season went fairly well. "Next year will be better," Benjamin stated. Marshall says that she looks forward to the next three years with the Cavemen.

Nicholas Sciacca

Nicholas Sciacca (Sr), according to fellow teammate, Nicholas Eyster (Sr) was the "heart and soul of our team." He was the team's MVP and he also earned the Frank M. Steele award. "I'm going to miss playing soccer here because of all of my teammates and the fun times we had together," said Sciacca. His plans for the future are to attend Purdue University to major in pharmacy. Sciacca said, "I'm considering playing soccer there as a club sport." As he leaves Mishawaka High School, he wants to leave his younger teammates with a few words of advice. "Don't let the older players intimidate you just because they are bigger and faster. It's all mental." He will be missed by both his soccer coaches and fellow cavemen players alike.

1) Go Cavemen! The Cavemen huddle up after an exciting game at their home field. Jonathan Howell (Jr) felt that the season could've gone better. "We need to condition more in the offseason and play soccer to improve for next year."

3) Soccer or Gymnastics? Jason Dosmann (Jr) prepares for a throw-in. He flips to create more momentum in order to throw the ball further. "Sometimes I fall on my head when I'm doing my trick," jokes Jason.

2) Huh? Daniel Zeiger (Jr) pauses after a whistle is blown by the referee. Daniel made first team All Conference for the second year in a row. "I'm proud that I achieved my goal to receive first team this year. With hard work, as a team, we will be successful."

4) Lace 'em up. Stephen Caskey (Sr) takes a breather to make an adjustment on his cleats. Stephen, along with other teammates, agree that the Clay game was a memorable one. "We tied them on their senior night," Stephen said.

Motivation

Team plays tough despite challenges

1) Run With It: Shelby Morrow (Sr) was working really hard when she was carrying the ball upfield. Morrow was a tri-captain and the leading scorer for the season. She was a big contributor. Shelby quoted, "The competition was tough, but we tried to pull together as a team. With countless defeats this season, we still kept our heads high!"

2) Steal It: Ashley Everts (Fr) tries to take the ball away from a Northwood High School player. Ashley was happy about the season and enjoyed her first year playing for Mishawaka. Ashley said, "I loved the practices, and was happy our hard work could pay off. It was nice that our team was able to work together." She is looking forward to next year.

3) Burn Her: Jenna Downs-Last (Fr) dribbles the ball past a Northwood High School player. Downs-Last hopes to play soccer for Mishawaka all four years of high school. Downs-Last said, "I had fun when I was able to carry the ball up the field and challenge the goalie." Downs-Last was a forward for Mishawaka.

4) Over Their Heads: Rosemary Boser (Jr) takes a direct kick in the Northwood Game. This is Boser's first year at Mishawaka. She said, "We had fun this year and I am really looking forward to my second and last year playing soccer for Mishawaka." Boser was one of the best defenders this year for the team.

Jaclyn Rice

Jaclyn Rice was one of the five seniors on the Mishawaka Girls Soccer team. She has played for Mishawaka for three years and was on the varsity squad for two years. Rice said that she loved being part of the team and going to team dinners. Rice's most memorable game for the '04 season was the Bremen game. The girls won the game 6-0. Her favorite part of playing soccer at Mishawaka is the competition. She quoted, "I love the competition of playing soccer. Once the game starts you can play as hard as you want." Rice said she was going to miss just playing in general. Rice talked about how the team was so much fun because everyone had different impressions. Rice leaves some advice for underclassmen players, "Stay strong, keep your heads up, and play as a team."

1) Fight For It: Jaclyn Rice (Sr) makes an awesome effort to win the ball from an John Adams High School player. Jaclyn said, "My favorite part of the season was being with the team and the competition."

2) All Eyes On Her: Julia Smith (So) carries the ball down the field after having it kicked to her. She quoted, "Our team is all about having fun. We learn from our mistakes and get better every day."

3) Support System: "The fans gave us a lot of support. The team really appreciated their constant attendance." Heather Gordon (So) stated when asked how the team felt about the crowd.

4) Work It: After the half time talk, coach Kerry Wilson, Jaclyn Rice (Sr), and Ashley Everts (Fr) jogged back to the bench. It was very important for the team to stay moving so their muscles did not get cold.

Devotion

Cavemen Commit to a Challenging Season

1) Serve it Up! Matt Riddle (Jr) puts all his effort into serving at the matches. This year, Matt and his doubles partner Clinton Leazenby (Jr) won their sectional match. "It was a great accomplishment for us because we are only juniors." Matt recovered from an injury to play in the sectional match at the end of the season.

3) Pumped Up! Captain Korey Phelps (Sr) prepares for an aggressive return. On the court, he gives it all he can. He and Tim Fisher (Jr) worked well together on and off the court. "The whole team got along really well," said Korey. "We supported each other all the time."

2) Sportsmanship Timothy Fisher (Jr) shakes hands with his opponent from John Glenn. "Before every game we have a chance to meet our opponents. It's a good way to scope out the competition." It's also a good way to show sportsmanship and courtesy to the other team.

4) Ready for Action! Clinton Leazenby (Jr) prepares to volley the ball back to the opposing team. When asked about his favorite part of tennis, he replied, "the bus rides". "It's a great time for us to just relax and hang out," he said.

Front Row: Joseph Platt (Jr), Christopher Valentine (Fr), Wesley Johnson (Jr), Korey Phelps (Sr), James Herman (So), Clinton Leazenby (Jr), Scott Wagoner (Fr). 1) Huddle Up

Coach Ralph Beam gives his team a pep talk before a big match. The huddle prepares the team for the match and puts them in the right frame of mind.

3) Work Hard

Ben Ford (Fr) approaches the ball for a swift return. "I decided to try out for tennis because it's something I've never done before," he stated. Jim Herman (So) looks on.

2) Powerful Return

Scott Wagoner (Fr) uses his powerful forehand to return the ball. "I really liked playing tennis," he said. "I'm already looking forward to next season."

4) Having a Ball

Zach Hickie (Jr) works on his forehand during one of the team's practices. "I liked the competition at the matches," he said, "but I didn't really like all of the running."

Korey Phelps

This year's captain of the Mishawaka Boys Tennis team was senior Korey Phelps. "It was a big responsibility," he said, "but it was fun and I enjoyed it". Phelps was on the tennis team for all of his four years at Mishawaka. This year was the first season that the boys played on the new courts at Baker Park. "These courts are so much better," Phelps said. "We had been playing on courts that had all kinds of cracks in them". Phelps also enjoyed being the first team to play on the new courts. He plans on attending Indiana University in Bloomington, but he probably won't play tennis. He said that he will miss all the fun the team had together. He encourages all of the underclassmen to keep playing. "When you are on the courts, give it your best shot. Always keep it cool and be prepared".

Concentration

Swinging towards victory

1)Get Ready April Twohey (Jr) is approaching her ball, ready to swing away. A good full swing is what it takes to make the ball travel. "It's not like 'Happy Gilmore.' You have to work," says April. There is a variety of clubs to use. Such as the nine iron, a putter, and many more. It's very important to choose the right club for each shot.

3)Concentrate As a first year golfer for Mishawaka High School, Chelsey Cochran (Fr) is trying her best not to make any big mistakes. It's important for all the girls to try their best, but it's more important for the girls to have fun! They improved individually and as a whole. This is more important than the numbers on the scoreboard.

2)Team Unity The team stops to take a group picture after a long round of golf. Molly Aldrich (Jr) says "I try to average a hole-in-one every round I play. I usually don't, but it's good to have a standard." The girls on the team know how important it is to support each other. Molly also said "It's important to keep a positive attitude so you can help someone who's feeling sad."

4)Putting Time Ashley Paul (Jr) is concentrating on her next swing. Strength is not an important factor in the game of golf. It's about concentration and focusing on your goal. If Ashley keeps up the good work, she could be the female Tiger Woods. With the help of her team mates, that should be as easy as par!

Ericka Johnson

Ericka Johnson is a senior on the girls golf team. This is only her third year on the team, because she is graduating early. When asked about whether she was upset when Coach John Gleissner stepped down, handing the reigns to Head Coach Ryan Watson, she said, "Part of me was upset because Mr. Gleissner was a great coach. But I was also happy, because I knew Coach Watson was a great coach too. So it was bittersweet." Ericka also shares a special bond with her teammates. "I loved the bus rides to away games. All the girls would sing and have fun. So when you arrived at the match, you couldn't help but be in a good mood." Finally, Ericka summed up this year for the team: "Our record doesn't reflect how hard we tried. We really improved this year."

1) Thinking... April Twohey (Jr), Ericka Johnson (Sr), and Gianna Wright (Fr) are contemplating their fast approaching game. "Getting the ball in the hole, that's the hardest part," says Ericka.

3) Quiet Please... Jessica Beehler (Jr) is ready to putt her way to the prize. It's very important in the game of golf that the observers remain quiet so that the golfers can concentrate on their game.

2) Fun Times "My favorite thing about being on the team is getting to ride the short bus," jokes Molly Aldrich (Jr), "But really, we all are very close and we support each other." Sounds like a hole-in-one to me!

4) Nice Shot! Ericka Johnson (Sr) shoots up some sand to get back on the green. She quotes "The best thing about this team is that it's small. We are all like family. But even families have friendly rivalries."

Sensation

Cavemen cheerleaders inspire school spirit

1) All smiles. The varsity cheerleaders take a time out for a quick snapshot. Besides having fun cheering at games, the girls also enjoyed their time together off the sidelines. "We can always find a way to have a good time," explained Paige Fairchild (Jr). From getting ready before games to hanging out afterwards, this year's squad always had fun together.

3) Number one! The senior cheerleaders and varsity basketball players pose for a picture after defeating Elkhart Central in the championship game of the NIC Holiday Tournament. "Cutting down the net after the Holiday Tourney was one of the best moments," stated Angela Presits (Sr). Besides winning the Holiday Tourney, Presits also enjoyed becoming close with the whole basketball team.

2) So give a loud cheer... Emily Stillson (Sr) and Jennifer Vicsik (Sr) perform the school song during the football homecoming motivational symposium. Formerly known as pep rallies, motivational symposiums are used to enthruse the student body for the upcoming game. "Motivational symposiums are fun to cheer at because it gets the whole student body involved," stated Stillson.

4) Club the Chargers. Erica Peebles (Jr), along with the rest of the varsity cheerleaders prepares for the basketball team to run out onto the court. Before games, the squad cheers, dances and gets the crowd ready for the approaching contest. "My favorite part of pregame is when the guys actually run through the hoop. The crowd always gets excited after that," said Peebles.

Senior cheerleader, Gabriella Layman has been inspiring school spirit for more than eight years. She has been a part of Mishawaka's squad for four years. This past season, she was named captain. Along the way, Gabriella has made many memories on and off the sidelines. "It's definitely hard to choose my favorite part," said Layman. "I love everything from UCA camp and competitions, to cheering at every home game with my best friends." Home games are fun because there is a lot more crowd interaction. "The best game was this year's Concord game," explained Layman. With the game being sold out, the cheerleaders had a fantastic time leading the huge crowd. Leading the crowd has always come easy to Gabriella, and she will miss it. "I'll miss getting ready with the 'fab five' before every game the most." Gabriella had a wonderful four years, and her glowing smile will be missed by all the fans.

1) Pound the Panthers! The senior cheerleaders smile after finishing the hoop for the football game vs. Washington. "I always look forward to Friday nights during football season," said Mia Trimboli (Sr).

3) GO MHS! Sophomore Hannah Cramer guides the student body in a chant. "When the crowd gets excited, it makes our job a lot easier," said Cramer. The cheerleaders had a great student section to cheer with this year.

2) C-A-V-E-M-E-N. A few of the cheerleaders spell out Cavemen with their poms during pregame. "I like cheering at Mishawaka because of all the traditions," explained Hope Grame (Sr). This is only one of the many traditions here at MHS.

4) Cavemen Crazyes. Jessica High (Jr), Emily Stillson (Sr), and Hope Grame (Sr) pump up the crowd during starting line-up. "We couldn't do it without our bases," said High, who was one of the girls always on top.

Dedication

Cavemen finish with a "slam-dunk" record

1) We Ready! Matthew Danaher (Sr) leads the Cavemen onto the court prior to the start of the Elkhart Memorial game. "Running through the hoop to 'Eye of the Tiger' was the most exciting part," said Danaher. The fans went crazy as the Cavemen ran through the tunnel of cheerleaders and poms before ripping through the paper hoop.

2) Let's Get It Started! The Cavemen tip-off play against the Chargers. There were a lot of good times during the Cavemen's record season, but one stood out above the rest for Joshua Fulton (Jr). "The best part was hanging out with my friends on the team," explained Fulton. The Cavemen held team dinners together a few times during the season. This was a time where the team could relax, have a good time together, and eat some delicious food.

3) Take It To The Hole Senior Douglas Cox pounds his way for two more points against Memorial. "Nothing feels better than playing your best against the best players in the area." Cox was a dominant player for the Cavemen this season. His excellent play was rewarded when he received All-NIC first team honors this season.

4) Get On The Floor. Kriss High (Sr) and Matthew Danaher (Sr) dive for a loose ball. "The hard work and team chemistry of this year's team was what made us so successful," explained the senior co-captain High. "We were like one big family. A few of us hung out in the locker room after every practice. That is one thing I will always remember."

* Denotes NIC Holiday Tournament Game

Benjamin Glynn played his first and last season on the varsity basketball team this year. Thanks in large part to Glynn, this year's Cavemen had a record-setting season. Along with starting at point guard for the Cavemen, Glynn was also a senior co-captain. "Winning the NIC Holiday Tournament and cutting down the nets with my teammates was by far the best part of this season," said Glynn. His favorite part was hanging out as a team in the locker room after practice. He also mentioned that there were a lot of good times in the locker room preparing for the game. "Antonio always had his way of making us laugh before games," explained Glynn. The one thing that he will miss the most is the closeness of this year's team. His advice to future Cavemen goes like this: "You have to work for everything. If you want something, you have to work hard to achieve it."

1)Time To Get Crazy! Senior co-captain Benjamin Glynn is introduced during starting lineups. "The starting lineup was an awesome experience. The fans really got us pumped up before every game," said Glynn.

3)Huddle Up. Davon Williams (Jr) looks on during a timeout. "I'm looking forward to taking this program to a new level next season," said Williams.

2)Grab Your Books. Antonio Dye (Sr) teaches a lesson to a Memorial defender. "It was nice to see all of our hard work pay off this season," commented Dye. Dye was named MVP of the NIC this season.

4)Get Up! Craig Heatherly (Jr) takes a shot during action this season. "Our team chemistry greatly contributed to our team's success this season," explained Heatherly.

Intimidation

Girls' Basketball

1) Time Out!! The girls huddle during a time-out to determine their next play. Coach Kenny Jankowski was always ready for any situation, and the team would execute what he said to the best of their abilities.

3) Shoot it! Heather Hahn (Jr) shoots over the opponents. Heather's height always gave her an advantage to rebound and score, and she always capitalized on the advantage. She was one of the leading scorers this season for the Cavemen.

2) Go! Stephaine Beck (Fr) looks for an opening in the paint as she drives past her defender. Stephaine was the only freshman this year to get consistent varsity playing time. She worked hard every day to get to the level she is today.

4) Get in There! Brittney Paulk (Jr) puts in a lay-up after getting an offensive rebound. Brittney was a force in the paint all season, getting rebounds over the opponents, even though she was much shorter than the other players.

Amy Amacher has had an outstanding basketball career at Mishawaka. She has lettered three years on varsity, was Most Valuable Player in 2004 and 2005, and received N.I.C. Second Team All-Conference her senior season.

Amy hopes to follow Chastity Zellers, a Bethel College graduate as a Lady Pilot next year. Amy's always been a hard worker and she's always set a good example for the people behind her. Her advice to other Cavemen is to not hold anything back, because it's over before you know it. Her career is over, but her legacy will stay with Mishawaka Girls' Basketball for years to come.

1) Ready to Go! Jessica Kaniewski (Jr), Tara Blair (Jr), Heather Hahn (Jr), Amy Amacher (Sr), and Katy Buda Jr get ready to play defense.

2) Nice Job! Jessica Kaniewski (Jr), Ashlyn Stewart (Sr), and Malin Jacobsen (Sr) cheer on their teammates from the bench.

3) Go Get Em'! Bethany Nelson (Sr) attempts to block a shot. Bethany was one of the team's best defenders this season.

4) Concentrate! Amy Amacher (Sr) attempts a free throw after she is fouled. Amy got to the free throw line very consistently every game.

Fascination

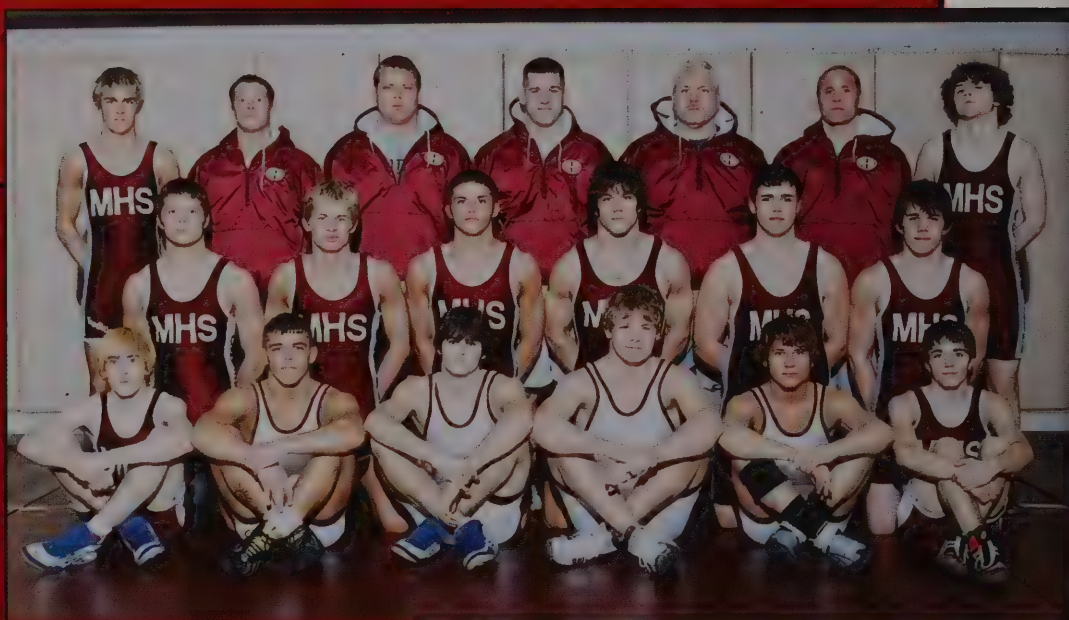

Cavemen dominate all the way to state

1) Pin Him! Patrick Day (Jr) waits for the ref. to slap his hand on the mat indicating a win. When Day was asked what sort of traditions they had on the wrestling team he replied, "Each year after team state we go to Golden Corral and see who can gain the most weight, which is usually Jason."

3) Finish It! Ian Hinton (So) makes a move to get a win for the team. When Ian was asked what was the biggest match of the year for him, he replied, "Wrestling in the State Finals was probably the biggest match in my life. I look forward to making it next year, but this time winning, that would be pretty sweet!"

2) Down For The Count! Kyle Bergin (Sr) uses the Berginator on his Jimtown opponent. When asked what the boys did to get pumped up Bergin replied, "Usually the guys sang and danced in the locker room before every home meet to get pumped up."

4) Hang On! Benjamin Dolly (Jr) waits for a good chance to pin his opponent. "The best moment of the year for me was when I won the Al Smith Invitational. That's when we dominated Penn 52-12, in the first dual meet of the year," said Dolly.

Jason Francis has been committed to Mishawaka Wrestling all four years of his high school career. He was sectional champ for three years, and two years all conference. When his teammates were asked what they thought of him they replied, "He's always a hard worker and is always trying to make the team better. He brings a special aspect to the team, which wouldn't be the same without him." When asked about the best memory of the year, he replied, "Winning individual sectionals and when Pat Day came back to the team after being out his sophomore year due to an injury from football." Jason will miss "hanging out with the guys and warming up to JT Money hit em high hit em low'. Next year Jason hopes that the team will work just as hard to win state.

1) Sectional Champs! The Cavemen pose for the camera after once again gaining another Sectional Championship.

2) Get em! Tony Forte (Sr) moved here from Bremen to wrestle his senior year at Mishawaka. He said, "Everything here at Mishawaka High School is 100% better, especially the WRESTLING."

3) Turn em! Josh Black (Sr) Tries to turn his opponent. Walking out under the lights onto the mats is what Black is going to miss most about Mishawaka wrestling

4) Rivals! Jason Francis (Sr) works hard to pin his Penn opponent. "I was happy after that match because I told coach Snyder that I wanted to bump up to 135," said Francis

Perseveration

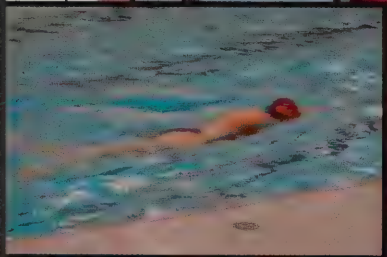

PERSEVERANCE IS KEY

1) Smile ! Captains Heather Kimmel (Sr), Andrea Tolliver (Sr), and Barbara Ford (Jr) take a quick picture after the Northwood meet. These three girls kept things in order and worked hard to maintain the top tradition of MHS swimming.

3) Saying Good- Bye! Heather Kimmel (Sr) and Andi Tolliver (Sr) take a quick picture during senior night. "I was sad to know this was my last year" said Tolliver, "but I am excited to swim next year at Indiana University I am really looking forward to it."

2) Thinking With Your Heart! "If you are going to do something, do it with all your heart because something done half heartedly is only half right." This quote was an inspiration to all the swimmers given by coach Shawn Bolinger.

4) No pain No gain ! "We practice hard, said Kara Burzloff (Fr). "Six day practices causes a lot of pain but in the end it is worth it and I stuck with it."

Heather Kimmel is finishing off her fourth year in swimming this year. "I will miss the swim meets but mostly the swim team because those girls rock!"

Heather is the captain of the Girls Swim Team and says, "It was a big responsibility but fun at times. Sometimes it was difficult because it was hard to get all the girls to listen." When asked what she liked most about this season, she answered, "It was exciting because we had a lot of freshman, and I got to swim with my younger sister."

Heather's favorite things about swimming were the swim meets and the pasta parties. Her advice to the underclassmen: "Don't give in to the pain! When it hurts the most, push the hardest. Go to the morning practices-even though it's early-because they do help you. Keep a good attitude!" Heather is the swim team's MVP.

1) Just Keep Swimming!
 "Even though it is not enjoyable waking up at 5:30 A.M, it did not keep me from doing the sport I love," said Jessica Phend (Fr).

2) Ready, Set, Go ! Katie Wontuck (Fr) gets ready to dive off to swim the back stroke. She was a valuable member of the swim team.

3) Pull! Kick!Glide!
 Mallory Kimmel (Fr) is trying to reach the touch pad for victory. This was her first year and she was inspired by her sister.

4) Swimming Hard!
 "After all the hard work of practice we got to go to pasta parties and talk about upcoming meets to support each other" said Charlene Ellis (Fr).

Determination

DETERMINE YOUR SUCCESS

1) Dye It! James Luvine (So) is sporting a prime example of one of the Mishawaka swimmers' traditions. It is tradition for the swimmers to shave their heads and dye their hair. Another tradition of theirs is singing the song "Hail to the Bus Driver". James earned his first varsity letter this year and will hopefully continue to swim for Mishawaka in the future.

3) Cheesin' It! Douglas Clements (Sr) puts on a smile for the camera. Good attitude is a must for any athlete. Douglas was this year's winner of the Mental Attitude Award. He participated in many events this year. His favorite event is the 100 breaststroke. When asked what he will miss the most about swimming, Doug stated, "The messing around at practice with the guys."

2) Photo Finish! Aron Condon (Sr) looks up at the board to see his time and what place he finished. Aron was a Co-MVP and captain of the swim team this year. Aron is a four year letter winner and plays an important role on the Mishawaka swim team.

4) Beep! Steven O'Dell (Jr) prepares for his big race. Steven participated in the butterfly, backstroke, and the short distance freestyle events. When asked what the best part about meets is, Steven said, "the energy of the races."

3) Waitin' Around! Aron Condon (Sr), Douglas Clements (Sr), and Alex Nash (Sr) take time out from the meet to pose for a picture. All three swimmers are four year letter winners, captains, and Co-MVP's.

2) Motivate! Douglas Clements (Sr) motivates his teammates during a swim meet. It is important to be motivated when involved in sports because it gives you the confidence in yourself to perform well.

4) Warmin' Up! The swim team runs before their meets in order to warm up their bodies for their upcoming events. Warming up is an important factor in any sport because if your body is not prepared you will not perform well.

Douglas Clements is a four year letter winner on the Mishawaka swim team. He is a Co-MVP, captain, and winner of the Mental Attitude Award. He is a very valuable member of the team and contributes to the team in many ways. Some of his accomplishments this year include setting school records in the 200 medley relay, 200 freestyle relay, 400 freestyle relay, and the 100 breast stroke. Douglas was also the sectional champion in the 100 breast stroke. The thing he will miss the most about swimming is just messing around at practice with the guys. His favorite memory from this year is winning sectionals. He is not sure if he will continue swimming in college, but he will attend Grand Valley State in the fall. Douglas is very grateful for his coach, Bob Thompson, who has supported him throughout his swimming career. His advice to future swimmers is to stick with it, and it'll all pay off.

Synchronization

1) Gaining speed! Brian Howard (Sr) gains speed before completing a long jump. Brian also competes in the 100 dash, 200 dash, and the 400 relay. Brian stated that long jump takes a lot of time and a lot of work. He likes the rush it gives him before every track meet.

2) Finish strong! Wayne Masteller (Fr) crosses the finish line during the 100 dash. When asked why he likes track, Wayne stated, "I like track because I like to run and compete." He also runs the 400 relay, the 300 hurdles, and the 1600 relay.

3) Keep your form! Jeremy Vickery (Jr) keeps his form as he competes in the high hurdles. Jeremy also runs the low hurdles. Keeping good form is a must when participating in hurdles. When asked why he likes to compete in the hurdles, he stated, "I like the competition and the feeling you get when competing."

4) Jumpin' high! Skyler Wanberg (Fr) competes in the high jump. Since he is a freshman, he is learning many new things about track. Because the competition is more intense, he has to be more serious than at middle school. Competing in track at high school takes hard work and dedication.

1) Goin' Strong! Calon Naragon (Sr) and Kirk Kuespert (Jr) run in the 3200 relay. When Calon was asked what he will miss about high school track, he said, "I will miss running with the team and all the crazy stuff we do."

3) In the Zone... Brant Barkdull (Sr) concentrates as he prepares to throw the disc. This was Brant's first year on the track team. He encourages freshmen to get involved because when your senior year is over, you will regret it.

2) Striding out! Kirk Kuespert (Jr) strides out during the 3200 relay. Kirk also participates in the 800, 1600, and some high jump. Since the first time he ran it, his favorite event has been the 800.

4) Aim high! Jason Dosmann (Jr) competes in the pole vault. Jason also competes in the 1600 relay, 300 hurdles, and the 110 hurdles. When asked why he likes pole vault, Jason responded, "I like the rush that you get from doing it."

Senior Calon Naragon has been a member of the boys' track team for all four years of high school. He is an accomplished runner and participates in the 3200 relay and the 1600 and 3200 runs. He enjoys running track because each person determines his/her own fate. His favorite event is the 3200 run because it is mentally challenging and also a long race. He trains hard by running high mileage. Because of this, he is able to push himself and run faster times than in previous years. All of his hard work paid off this year when he became sectional champion in the 3200. Calon's advice to other runners is to work hard every day in practice and always give your best. One of his favorite quotes is "Hard work beats talent, when talent doesn't work hard." Calon plans on attending Bethel College and earning a degree in physical therapy. He will continue to run track and cross country at Bethel.

Invigoration

1) Perfect form! Brittney Paulk (Jr) shows great form while throwing the disc. Brittney also throws the shot. She has been throwing shot and disc for three years now. She has made great improvements during her years on the Mishawaka track team. Brittney stated, "If you work hard and want something bad enough, you will improve and excel."

2) Nice exchange! Shelby Morrow (Sr) and Brittani Ashburn (Fr) complete an exchange in the 3200 relay during the sectionals at Bremen. As a freshman, Brittani Ashburn was a big asset to the team. She participated in the 3200 relay as well as the mile and two mile runs. Brittani said, "High school track is more intense and competitive than middle school track."

3) Concentrate! Jacqueline Maguire (Sr) must have concentration when throwing the disc. Jacqueline competed in the shot and disc for Mishawaka this year. Despite an injury, she still had a great year. She not only threw shot and disc but when time allowed she would condition with the distance runners. When asked what her favorite memory from this year was, she stated, "I loved the early morning runs."

4) Take the baton! Abbey Kilgore (So) receives the baton in a relay at the Princess Relays. When asked why she likes to run track, she quoted, "Track is exciting. I love the atmosphere and the girls on the team." Abbey was injured most of last year, so it was nice to have her back and running.

Senior Allyson Reynolds has been running track for three years at Mishawaka. She has participated in long jump, the 100, 200, 400, 400 relay, and the 1600 relay. She enjoys running track because she loves staying active and busy. She loves challenges and all the friends and memories she has made. Allyson's favorite memory is jumping 5'11" at the Princess Relays. Allyson's favorite events are long jump and the 1600 relay. She likes the 1600 relay because she gets pumped up and it's such a competitive race. Her advice to other track runners is to stick with it, even though it's hard. You will get satisfaction knowing you are able to accomplish what so many are afraid or too lazy to do. After high school, Allyson will leave for basic training and job training for the army reserves. Afterwards, she will attend Tri-State University. She will major in biology and run track and cross-country.

1) Get out fast! Sienna Valdez (So) gets out fast in her race at the Princess Relays. Sienna stated, "I love running the mile and two mile because they're hard core and take strength and endurance."

2) Steady pace... Shelby Morrow (Sr) sets the pace during the relay race. When asked why she likes relays, Shelby said, "I like the relationships and the trust that are built within the girls on the team."

3) Hang time! Allyson Reynolds (Sr) makes a great jump at the Princess Relays. When asked what she will miss the most about track, Allyson stated, "The girls because we are all different but we all still get along."

4) Great jump! Tricia Middleton (Sr) completes a great long jump. Tricia has been long jumping for all four years of her high school career. She also participated in the sprints, including the 100 dash, 200 dash, and the 400 relay.

Boys' Baseball

1) Hit It!! Sean Ferguson (So) watches a ball in preparing to swing as his teammates watch. Sean was one of the younger players on the squad this year. He looked up to a lot of the older players for advice and guidance.

2) Swing! Brandon White (Jr) gets ready to swing at a pitch. Brandon was one of the more experienced outfielders this year. He will be an essential part of the team next season.

3) Fire It In! Randy Schuster (Jr) fires a pitch to the plate. This season, Randy was a very important asset to the team this season with his pitching and hitting skills.

4) Dig It! Michael Spencer (Sr) races to first base to beat out a throw. Michael was one of the fastest runners on the team this season. His leadership and enthusiasm were evident in every game.

1) Team! The team huddles together after the third out on a chilly day. They are getting a pep-talk before they hit. Staying motivated was an important part of the team's success this year.

3) Concentrate! Todd Messana (Jr) watches from the dugout alongside his coach. Todd was one of the pitchers on the team this year. He works hard in the off-season to improve his game.

2) Strike! Jacob Cramer (Sr) prepares to catch a pitch. Jacob was the main catcher on the team this year, and did an amazing job behind the plate.

4) He's Out! Casey Claeys catches a ball at first base. Casey was a huge contribution to the team and a great leader. His guidance will be missed by next year's team.

L.A. High has been playing baseball since he was a tiny boy in Little League. He has always been a good role model to the people he is around. L.A. is a member of the successful boys' basketball team, National Honor Society, Stay in Bounds, Student Council, Caveman Core, and Project Teach.

L.A.'s made many memories on the baseball squad, like beating Penn his junior year, and all the little rituals he does with the team, but what he will miss the most is playing games under the lights. He has left a lasting impression on everyone he has ever played with. He works hard, stays positive, and motivates others. Ron Santo was his role model "because of the heart and love for the game he played with." L.A.'s advice to future players is to work hard, play every game as if it's your last, and never quit. L.A. lived by those words, and he hopes that people will follow in his footsteps.

Softball

1) Swing!! Becky Holtz (Jr) swings at a pitch. Becky's leadership was evident throughout the whole season. She always encouraged her other teammates. Becky always had key hits in important games. Her fielding was also excellent throughout the year.

2) Fire!! Bethany Nelson (Sr) throws a ball to first. This season, Bethany played third base. Her leadership was evident throughout the season. She was very encouraging to everyone, especially her little sister, Rebekah Nelson, who was the catcher this season.

3) Fire It In!! Kelsey Egyhazi (Jr) fires in a pitch to an opponent. Teams always feared Kelsey at the plate with her speed and experience on the mound. Kelsey's talent carried her and the team many times throughout the season. Kelsey also hit a home run at Twin Branch this season. It was the first time a female has ever hit a home run over the fence. Kelsey was honored with MVC Second Team this year.

4) Go Team! The team watches from the bench and cheers on the batter. The bench contributed day in and day out to keep the team motivated. No matter what, the team never gave up whether they won or lost.

1) Ready To Go! Janessa Dewitt (Jr) gets ready to swing at a pitch. Janessa's hitting and pitching were strong. She received NIC Second Team this season.

2) Got Her!! Kimberly Yeakey (Sr) catches a ball at first base. Kimmy was and excellent fielder this year. Kimmy was honored with NIC First Team this season.

3) Ready To Run! Tara Blair (Jr) gets ready to run home at the sign of third base coach Bob Egyhazi. Tara was the most experienced outfielder this year. She had a perfect fielding percentage and also received NIC First Team honors for the second time in her career.

4) Watch Out! Rebekah Nelson (Fr) watches a runner back at first base. Rebekah was one of four freshmen on the team this year. She was a major contribution behind the plate this season.

Bethany Nelson probably never thought that her softball career would end so fast when she first started playing softball at the age of six. Throughout all these years she's made a lot of memories, like beating Penn her senior year. She will miss all of the goofy things the team does, like spitting in the team huddle before all the games and many other things that shouldn't be mentioned. A lot of Bethany's memories are of Emery Petko, former head coach at MHS, who passed away earlier this year. 'Emery made me want to do my best all the time.' Bethany and everyone who ever knew Emery will miss him.

Bethany is a great role model for younger players. She works hard at everything she does and is a member of many activities, like basketball, Miskodeed, and National Honor Society.

Now that Bethany's sports career is over, she wants everyone to 'take every moment and cherish it, it'll be over before you know it.'

Concentration

Concentrate on the Ball!

1) Anticipation. Sophomore Mathew Spencer putts in the last hole and what he hopes to be a "birdie." "A birdie is when you shoot under par for that hole," states Mathew Spencer. Golf is a very difficult sport and to be able to shoot under par for any hole is an incredible accomplishment.

3) Where'd it go? Nick Pryzgoda (Sr) awaits the drop of his golf ball after a tremendous shot at a difficult hole. Nick says, "The most challenging aspect about golf is staying focused with all the distractions." In a sport that requires a great amount of mental toughness, learning how to block out near by distractions is key to a good match.

2) Complete concentration. Johnathan Howell (Jr) squats down to think as he prepares for his next shot. When Johnathan was asked what he did to prepare for a match he replied, "I stretch out." Believe it or not, in the game of golf stretching is an important factor. If a individual's arms are not properly stretched out before a match they are at risk to injure their arms.

4) Just right! Freshmen Matthew Layman makes sure he lines up is shot absolutely perfect before he takes the putt. Lining up one's golf ball with the hole is a critical move one must take if they are wanting to sink the ball. In golf, every inch counts.

1) Group shot! The boy's golf team warm up their arms and practice their golf swing before the match. It is important to be together before a match so they can rely on one another for encouragement and support.

3) One putt away! Shaun Sowers (Sr) attempts to make the final putt to end the match. When Shaun was asked what his biggest motivator was he replied, "My coach, he is an amazing motivator. He uses all types of methods to motivate all of us." In a sport that requires so much skill, motivation is a must.

2) Hopefulness. Senior James Joachim waits in confidence as his golf ball approaches the hole. James states, "My greatest memory is when Nicholas Oswald made a putt to beat Adams." In golf it is just as individual as it is a team sport.

4) Four! Jason Chrapek (Sr) slices the ball perfectly on his first hole in the match. Jason states that his funniest moment was when, "our coach told us before a tournament 'If you're gonna go over the green, make sure ya take a few windows out of the Penn coach's van.'"

When senior James Joachim was asked how many years he has been playing golf he responded with, "twelve years." This dedication sure has shown throughout his high school career. James has had an immense amount of achievements during his golfing season. He has accomplished NIC 1st team his freshman and sophomore year along with a remarkable trip to State his sophomore year. Furthermore, James was honored with the title of NIC MVP his junior year, Champion of the 2004 Mishawaka Men's Metro Tournament in addition to his collection of trips to Regionals all four years. Due to James' outstanding golfing success, he has earned himself a scholarship for his first year of college. James will be attending Indiana Purdue Fort Wayne and majoring in Elementary Education. James said that his greatest influence has been his parents, "they encourage me beyond belief." It is evident that this will not be the last time we hear of James Joachim.

Collaboration

Tennis team works together!

1) Take This! Julia Smith (So.) volleys back the ball to her John Adams opponent. Julia and her partner Ja'Leesa Jones played a great match that day. It ended up being a split set. Julia and Ja'Leesa played #1 Varsity doubles for the team. This is Julia's second year playing tennis for the Cavemen. Julia quoted, "I love playing tennis. It is so much fun. All the girls on the team are great. It was such a blast playing this year."

2) Bam! Rachel Powers (Fr.) smacks the ball back over the net. This is her first year playing tennis. She played #1 and #2 JV doubles. "She said her personal record was pretty good." Rachel said her favorite memory from the season was when she and her partner Melinda Harlow won their set at the tie breaker. "I had so much fun with all players. I think I might to work on my backhand a little bit," Rachel said.

3) I Got It! Audrey Wilson (Fr.) jumps to hit the ball. Audrey was one of the many improving freshmen. She played both singles and doubles. This was her first year ever playing tennis. She said, "I just had so much fun, I loved all the girls. I can't wait for next season." Audrey will be sure to improve with one year under her belt. She said, "I learned so much from playing with older girls, it was exciting."

4) Serve It Up! Paige Fairchild (Jr.) serves the ball, hoping to score an ace. This is Paige's second year playing for the Cavemen. She quoted, "Even though our record didn't show it, we played hard and did our best. We really came together as a team by the end of the season." Paige played doubles for the team and was an influential member of the team.

1) Going For It! Antoinette Franklin (Jr.) runs to get the short ball and volley it over the net. She played #2 Varsity doubles most of this year. She had many different partners and worked hard to get a victory with all of them.

3) Nice Shot! Sarah Jolly (Fr.) hopes to serve a good one to the opponent. Sarah thinks she improved a lot and says she learned how to work as a team. She said, "I think I did good for my first year, I am looking forward to next year."

2) Good Shot! Amber Taylor (Jr.) hits the ball hard back over the net. She was one of the co-captains this year. She said, "My favorite times were singing on the bus, especially 'Lean On Me'." This is Amber's third year playing.

4) Return It! Ja'Leesa Jones (Jr.) returns a serve from the opposing team. This is her third year playing. She played #1 Varsity doubles. She quoted, "I need to work on letting my frustration show." She was a co-captain this year.

New comer Abby Wiles has been a member of the tennis team for one season. She is one of the two seniors on the 2005 girls tennis team. When asked why she decided to join the team this season she said, "I have done a lot in my four years at Mishawaka, but this year I wanted to try something different." This was her first year ever playing tennis. The season was enjoyable for Abby. She said, "I enjoyed the season more than I thought I would." Her funniest memory of the season is when she tripped and fell serving at the Saint Joseph match. The girls from Saint Joe made fun of her, in a nice way, after she laughed it off. When asked what her most memorable experience of the season was, Abby replied, "When Ja'Leesa Jones yells my nickname, 'Stinky Feet', really, really loud during matches." Abby said, "I love the girls. They are wonderful." Abby plans to attend Valparaiso University in the fall.

Gianna Wright (Fr) looks to pass the ball to a teammate in the post. The girls' JV basketball team had a rough start to the season, but by the end they greatly improved their skills. Gianna said of the season, "We learned a lot and I think next year, with more experience, we'll do a lot better. I had a lot of fun getting to know some of my teammates more; I think that was the best part."

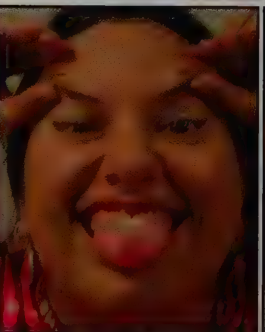

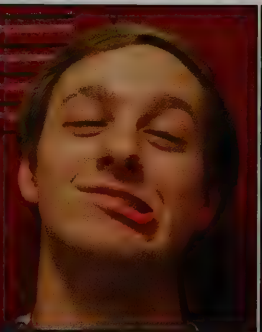

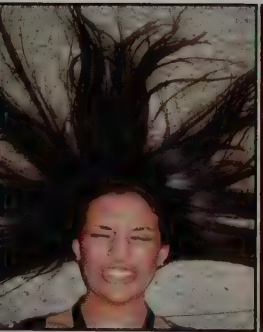

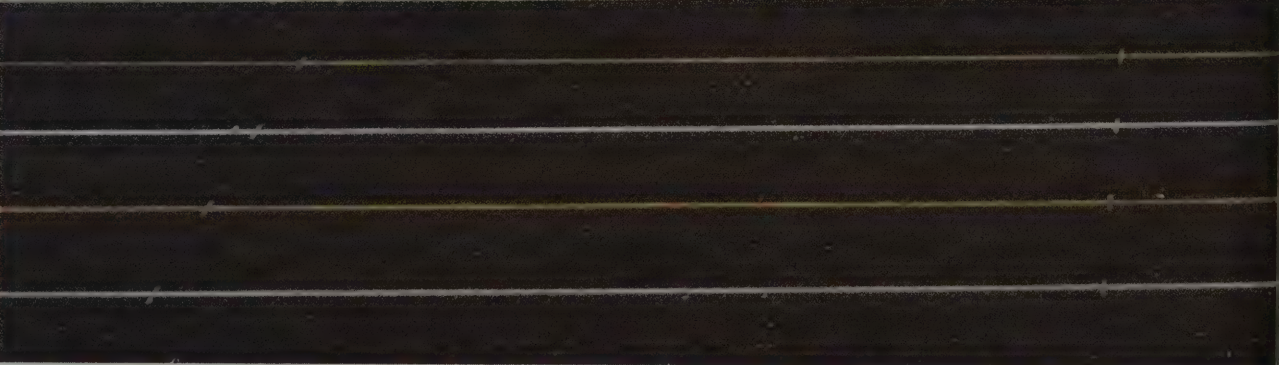

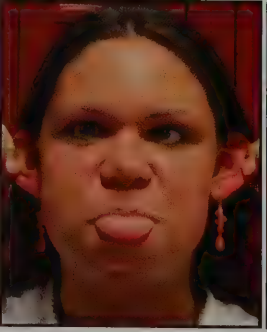

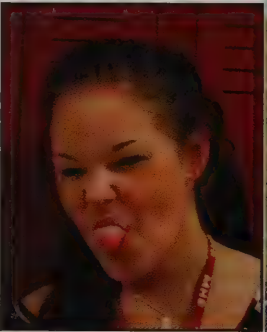

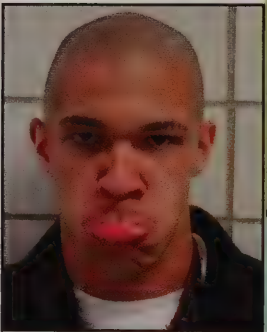

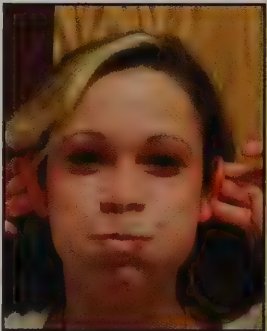

Brittani Ashburn (Fr) gives everything she has in attempt to stop her opponent from advancing up the field. One thing Brittani enjoyed about soccer was getting to know her teammates and the team dinners. Team dinners gave them a chance to bond while doing something every athlete likes to do after practice, eat!

Casey,

You're the best daughter any parent could ask for. You have always (most of the time!) brought us joy and happiness. We wouldn't trade the times we've shared for anything. You've grown up so fast!

We Love you,
Mom and Dad

Casey Fike

Dear Erin,
You've always been beautiful, both inside and out. But your faith, compassion, determination, and heart are what make you so special.

Keep your faith strong and your heart pure. Reach for your dreams. Live your life in God's power - He's going to do amazing things through you!

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Erin Koczan

Elliot S. Sienicki

Time has gone by so quickly; it is now time for the next phase of your life. You have made us so very proud. You will always stand out amongst your peers. Always keep your head up high, believe in yourself (we do), and trust your judgements. So follow your dreams, do your best, have fun, and take the next step of your life and follow the path to the future.

We love you and will always be there for you. Good Luck being a Shocker.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Elliot Sienicki

Cat,

It's hard to believe you have grown up so fast. And here you are ready to graduate and move on to college. The time has truly gone too fast. Our baby Catherine grew up into a beautiful young lady. We are all so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We've enjoyed listening to you play guitar and violin, and hope you will continue with these things along with whatever other interests you may have. We also enjoyed the time you spent on Poms; everyone can see you always give your best! Reach for the stars, baby, because the sky is the limit and you can have whatever you want in life with hard work and reaching out to get what you want. Congratulations and good luck in the years ahead.

We all love you baby Cat!

Mom, Dad, Cassandra, Charles, and Christina

Ty, we couldn't be any more proud of you. You're not only a great student and athlete, but a wonderful son as well. You have always given your best in everything you have done, and we pray that you will always find happiness.

With all our love Mom and Dad, Travis and Cecilia.

Dear Ty, I love you, and we couldn't be happier with you.

Love Cecil, your little sis

Brant - What a great young man you have become. From a little long-haired boy to an "Andre" size young man, you have always had such a great heart and an even greater sense of humor. As you get ready for college, we know you will meet your challenges head on. We will always be there for you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Branners,

We haven't always gotten along but I'm really glad we do now. I'll always be here for you no matter what. Be yourself and have fun!

I love you, "little" brother!

Tony,

The years have passed so quickly: preschool...kindergarten...junior high...high school graduation. You have brought so much joy, love and laughter into our lives.

Words can not express how proud we are of the man you have become, and everything you have accomplished. Continue to work hard and stay focused as you follow your dreams. There is no need to reach high for the stars. They are already within you: just reach deep within yourself. Have fun at college and remember-we will always be here for you.

Love Dad and Mom

You will always be my little "Punks" no matter how old you are. You have made me so proud over the last 18 years as you have gone from an adorable little girl into a beautiful young lady. I hope all your dreams come true for you and dream big as the world is yours, reach for the stars. I love you so very much!!

Mom

Angela Ashenfelter

Congratulations Angie Kay, you did it!

We are so proud of you ! You have always set your goals high and achieved them. We know you will do your best no matter what. You will always be number 1 in our hearts.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Angela Riskovitch

Dear Michael,

I can not believe that we will be sending you off to college in the fall. It seems just like yesterday we held you in our arms. It has been a joy watching you grow into such a fine young man. Your love for life is so much a part of who you are. You have accomplished so much in such a short time, yet we know there is much more to come. Michael, you have been a great role model for Mathew and Alyssa. They love you very much. We are looking forward to the next chapter in your life. We love you and are very proud of you.

The first time we saw you, we knew that God had blessed us. As you have grown, pursued new opportunities, and matured into a beautiful young woman, we continue to be blessed by you. We are so proud of you for the high standards you've set for yourself, for the excellent example you are to others, and for the faithfulness and love you show to family and friends. Always follow your dreams, keep your faith in God, and always realize how very much we love you.

Love,

Bethany,

Where have all the years gone? In an incredibly short time you have grown into such a beautiful young woman. One of our most meaningful pleasures in life has been watching you mature, sharing in your joys and sorrows, and hopefully guiding you along the way. Now it's time for you to "test your wings" and do all these things you have been dreaming of, with Christ who gives you the strength. Don't look back, only ahead—with faith and confidence. We're always behind you Bethany. All our love, Mom Dad, Bekah and Chloe.

Dear Robb,
When you were so small, I wished you could talk. As you struggled to crawl, I wished you could walk. When your room was so messy, I wished it were neat. While you played with your food, I wished you would eat. When you learned how to drive, I wished you would wait. I wished you home safely, not out on a date. And now, as I've watched you become a young man, setting out on your own to learn all that you can. From books and from life, I want you to know I stand proudly behind you, wherever you go. I have dreams for you and one wish, just one, I wish we had more time together, my son.

Calon, times go by so quickly, it seems only like yesterday you were a young boy looking for adventure. Then suddenly the boy is gone, and his place is a fine, young man.

We are so proud of your abilities, hard work and accomplishments. But even more important than these, we're so proud of the person you are: the goodness and generosity, the thoughtfulness and caring that is so much a part of your daily life.

You are a special person and have touched our hearts in so many ways. We love you, and you know our love will always be there.

We are so fortunate to have a son like you. God bless you son.

"Track and Cross-County Seniors: Through trial of miles and miles of trials; we survived each other and it was all worth it in the end. Congratulations, we will never forget you and you never forget the lessons learned from teamwork, belief in yourself and determination.....all the best-Coach Kov

Mia--

When we look back over the last 17 years, we can't imagine what life would have been like without you. Every day has been some sort of an adventure. And it's not over yet.

The littlest ballerina on stage. The confident fifth grader at State History Day. The energetic cheerleader on the court and on the field. The student, the friend, the musician, the dreamer. All of these and so much more make you the fantastic person you are today. We are proud of your accomplishments and excited about your future. We know that life after MHS holds the promise of more goals to set and more achievements and successes to realize.

Always remember that we are there for you and support you in everything that you do. As the rest of your life begins, be sure of one thing...the best is yet to come!

All of our love...now and forever,
Mom and Dad

Mia Trimboli

Precious Girl,

It's so hard to believe that 18 years have flown by so quickly! You have been a constant joy to us, even when we made each other crazy. Watching you grow has been such a privilege and such an adventure. You are so full of delightful surprises and you will always be your own girl - sassy, sweet, and smart.

You have talent and potential you have not even begun to explore, and we wish you a lifetime of opportunities to make a difference for yourself and others whose lives you will touch. We are blessed to have you for our daughter. We love you Sissa!

Sarah Dietzel

Congratulations,
Mom and Dad

You were born December 7, 1986
6 pounds 3 ounces
Heather Christine Kimmel
we were proud.

You used to be quiet, shy and gentle,
Now intelligent, kind and secure
we are proud.

So many steps we have watched you take,
yet so many steps still to conquer.

With hope in our hearts,
smiles on our faces and tears in our eyes
we will forever love you.
Love, Mom, Dad, Mallory, and Ebe

Your favorites used to be
"Wizard Be Boz", Mr. Rogers and Daddy,
Now it's "Fools Rush In", Usher and Jaron Tuttle
we are pleased.

From a cute little girl...
to a beautiful young woman,
We are amazed.

Heather Kimmel

Amber

You are as sparkling and radiant as a diamond!

To have watched you grow to be a beautiful, talented, funny
and loving young woman was the absolute joy of our lives.

We could never be more proud of you and everything that you have accomplished in your life.

May your arms always be open wide and your love be forever!

We Love You!

Amber Ludwig

Poem for Adam

The road has been long, the task has been great
The journey has been hard and the path has been made
You have finished this time and learned your role
You have dedication and patience despite the tolls
You love and laugh better than anyone we know
You hold on to good times as you learn and grow

There is perseverance in your heart
You do not stop, till the job is done
There is devotion in your soul enough
To see your goals through while having fun

Adam, you bring so much joy to those around you
You lift them up, help them out of their blues
You sacrifice more than you have
You give more than you take
You pay for much more than you make

You are an amazing person who has fought through hell
You deserve every chance to let someone know
You have a story to tell

Thank you for the good times and the memories
throughout the years

Thank you for your kind words and the strength through the tears

Walk across that stage with your head held high
Your hard work has rewarded you
It's time to look behind you,
And say goodbye

So as you receive your diploma and move your tassel to the left Out of all of life's challenges to jump, this is just the first cleft

Never forget what you've done, and where it will take you

Where you go and what you do from here is centered around only you

Whatever you do though, always remember to have fun

From your mother and your two brothers
We admirably congratulate you on a job well done

Brannigan (Peedie) Benson

You've been such a joy to both of us, as well to many others

We love you, and are very proud in you
Keep sharing your gift of voice to the world!

We look forward to spending your adult years with you. You have our support in anything you do.

Love,
Mom and Dad

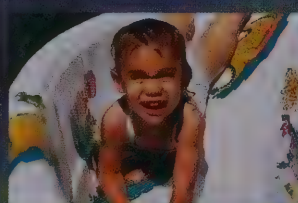

Brannigan Benson

Kolsey

Can you believe it's your senior year? Your mother and I sure can't. When we looked back at our photos to find these, we laughed and remembered all the fun times you have given us. Now as a young woman and going off to college, we will miss your smile, sleeping till 10:00 pm, and talking on the phone till the wee hours of the morning. I guess one out of three isn't bad (haha). Seriously, though, we are very proud of you and your accomplishment in life.
Wish you all the best in all you do and remember you can always count on us to be there for you. Enjoy this time in your life, and remember that you and God will now be in control of your destiny. "For I know the plans I have for you" Jeremiah 29:11

Dearest Gabriella,

Our lives changed when we were blessed with a beautiful, baby girl. What a gift from God you have been to us! Having you as a daughter has enriched our lives to an immeasurable level. It has been a pleasure to watch you grow and mature into a lovely young woman. You have been blessed with many gifts. Your energetic spirit will captivate everyone you come in contact with. You have certainly captivated our hearts. We are very proud of your accomplishments and will continue to be your biggest fans. The future is in your hands to make a difference in the world. We trust that your college career will empower you to continue to flourish and find your purpose in life.

Remember that with continued hard work and faith, you can achieve your goals and dreams. Live your days to the fullest with love in your heart, respect for yourself and your choices, and compassion for others. Your entire family adores you as you will forever be our "Bella". We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Matthew, and Annalisa

Gabriella Layman

A sweet baby girl
A rambunctious toddler
An imaginative, adorable child
An independent, compassionate teenager
An intelligent, beautiful young lady
The best years of your life are still to come.
We are so proud of all you've done and all that you will do, we love you so much.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Hope Grame,

Who would have thought that our little girl would be crowned homecoming and prom queen. You are our last child and you have brought us so much joy. You have worked hard during high school accomplishing and achieving many goals. We are so proud of all you have done. You are a beautiful, loving, and caring person who is always wanting to give. Keep God first and remember to enjoy the little things in life.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Hope Grame

Dear Shelby Marrow,

You have always been the most incredible gift from God. Your life has never been easy living with one parent, but you have never let that stop you from being the best that you can be. You deserve only the best in your future-may your every dream come true!

Love always your Mom, sister
Carri Anne and Bruce

The lockers are cleaned out. The caps and gowns are on. Another school year has come and gone.

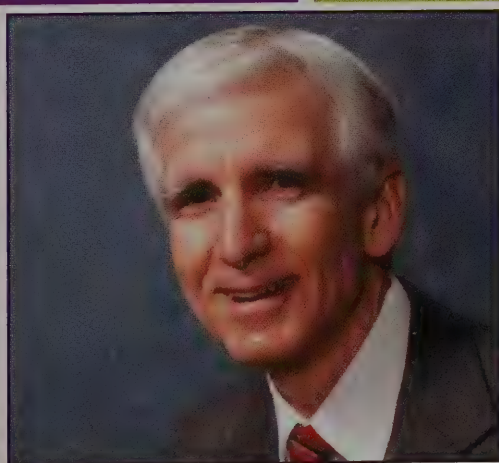

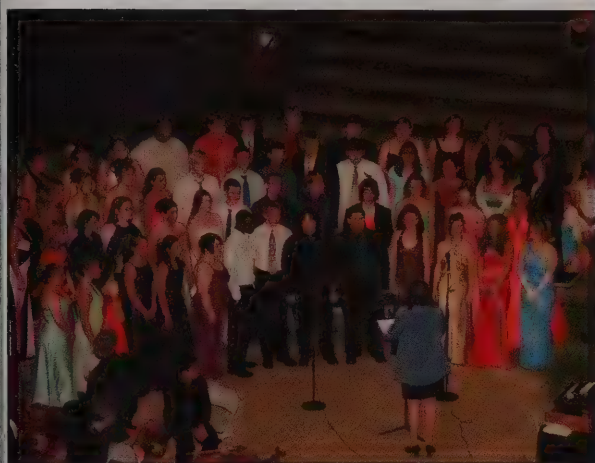

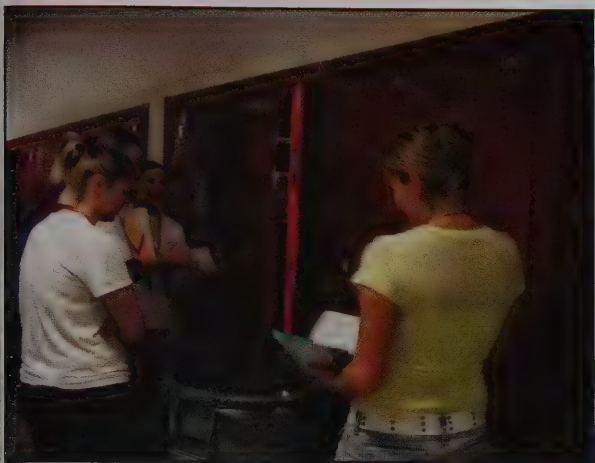

There are many events that signify that the year is coming to an end. Some of these events include Class Olympics, Mayfest, and Senior Awards Night. There are also little things such as locker cleanout that indicate that the end of the school year is right around the corner. "I can't wait until locker cleanout because I know there are only a few more days of school left," explained Angela Presits (Sr).

By the end of the year, both underclassmen and staff are counting down the days until summer. Summer means many different things to people. To some, it is a long break to sleep in, while to others it is a time to spend going to the beach, and other fun places.

For seniors, it is a different story; they are awaiting graduation. For most, graduation marks more than just the end of the school year.

For the graduating seniors, it marks the end of a high school career and opened the gate into the real world. Graduation is a time for friends and family to come together and celebrate the end of a four year journey, and the beginning of a new life. This year at commencement, Dr. Macri will be speaking and giving advice to the seniors for the real world.

The end of the year may have come to a close, but it is a new chapter in everyone's lives. While the seniors step out into the real world, the juniors begin filling out their college applications, the sophomores step one year closer to graduating, and the freshman have just begun. This year was filled with memories that will stay with us forever. Congratulations to the class of 2003 on all of their achievements, and good luck in the future.

Colophon

Volume 91 of the Mishawaka High School Miskodeed was sponsored by the English Department for one elective credit each semester.

The Miskodeed was supported through book and advertising sales. Books were sold during three sale campaigns: From August 16 to August 18 the prices were $30.00 and $35.00 (with name plate), from August 19 to October 1 the prices were $36.00 and $40.00, and from October 2 to April 1 the prices were $45.00 and $50.00. Prices for advertising ranged from $30.00 to $300.00. Senior ads were $65.00, Jostens Publishing Company based in Clarksville, Tennessee, lithographed the book. Phil Page was the local sales representative.

Studio One Photography studio based in South Bend, Indiana, took the senior photographs.

Jim Parker of Studio One Portraits in Indianapolis, Indiana, took the sports team photos and all music groups.

Other candid photos were taken by the yearbook staff with a digital camera and members of the student body.

The main type styles used through the book included, Eras Book, Impact, and Fairtrade. The paper is Monarch Gloss 80#. The cover is embossed and gloss laminated. 850 copies were printed.

We would like to send a special thanks to our new leader, Miss Angela Stillson. She kept us on track and organized throughout the creation of this book. We thank her for her time, hardwork, and patience.

To my staff,

What a great year we have had together! One thing I can say for sure is that we learned a lot about each other and ourselves. Seniors-- Good luck in all that you do! Keep in touch!

Miss Stillson
